ABOUT THE COVER

The Florida Marlins media guide cover commemorates the franchise's 2003 World Championship, the second in team history. The cover recaps the milestones accomplished by the members of the team that led to a magical season, including Jack McKeon's Manager of the Year award, Josh Beckett's World Series MVP honor, Dontrelle Willis' Rookie of the Year Award, Mike Lowell's Silver Slugger honor, Luis Castillo's Gold Glove award and Juan Pierre's stolen base record. The Marlins were named the Organization of the Year by Baseball America, for their accomplishments at the Major and minor league levels.

THE FLORIDA MARLINS ARE ONE OF FOUR TEAMS TO MAKE THE WORLD SERIES AS A WILD CARD ENTRY AND THE ONLY CLUB TO WIN IT TWICE.

AN AWARD-WINNING SEASON FOR THE FLORIDA MARLINS

The Florida Marlins received a variety of organizational, team and individual awards throughout the 2003 season. The Marlins won their second World Championship on October 25 and were named Organization of the Year by Baseball America. Florida became the first National League team and third team overall to win the World Series and be named Baseball America's Organization of the Year in the same season, joining the 1993 Toronto Blue Jays and the 1998 New York Yankees.

FLORIDA MARLINS AWARD WINNERS

Manager Jack McKeon was named the BBWAA National League Manager of the Year, as he led the Marlins to a 75-49 record, a .605 winning percentage, after being named skipper on May 11. The honor marks Florida's first Manager of the Year Award and the second honor by the BBWAA for McKeon, who also received the honor in 1999, while with Cincinnati. McKeon received 19 of 32 possible first-place votes and tallied 116 points overall, outdistancing the Cubs' Dusty Baker, who had 62 points. McKeon was named Co-Sportsman of the Year by The Sporting News, an honor he shared with Chiefs Head Coach Dick Vermiel.

Pitcher Dontrelle Willis became the first Marlins player to win a BBWAA award in the franchise's 11 seasons as he was named the National League winner of the Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year Award. The 21-year old left-hander was listed first on 17 of the 32 ballots, second on nine and third on six to finish with 118 points. Willis, who won nine of his first 10 decisions and finished the regular season with a 14-6 record and a 3.30 ERA, was the only player named to every ballot. Willis also received the Lary Doby Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum as the National League's Rookie of the Year.

Senior Vice President and General Manager Larry Beinfest was named the Rube Foster Legacy Award winner by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum as the 2003 National League Executive of the Year.

Outfielder Juan Pierre was voted the Marlins' Most Valuable Player by the South Florida chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America as he hit .305 with one homer and 41 RBI, while setting a career-best and franchise record with 65 stolen bases. Pierre was named the 2003 Lou Brock Award winner, the fifth Lou Brock Award in team history, as he led the NL (and the Majors) in stolen bases. Pierre also received the James "Cool Papa" Bell Legacy Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum for leading the NL in stolen bases.

Third baseman Mike Lowell, second baseman Luis Castillo and pitcher Dontrelle Willis were named to the 2003 National League All-Star team, marking the third trio of Marlins to be named to the All-Star Game in franchise history. In 1996, Kevin Brown, Al Leiter and Gary Sheffield were named to the 1996 Midsummer Classic while Moises Alou, Brown and Charles Johnson were each chosen in 1997. Castillo and Lowell each made their second consecutive trips to the All-Star Game, as each represented the Marlins in 2002.

Luis Castillo and Derrek Lee each won Rawlings Gold Gloves in 2003, the first set of Marlins teammates to accomplish the feat. Castillo and Lee were the first Florida players other than Charles Johnson (1995, 1996 and 1997) to win Gold Gloves.

Dontrelle Willis was named the Pitcher and Rookie of the Month for June, going 5-0 with a 1.04 ERA. Willis was also honored as the NL Player of the Week, for June 16-22. Miguel Cabrera was twice named NL Rookie of the Month, as he hit .318 with five homers and 21 RBI in July and .311 with three homers and 20 RBI in September. Pitcher Mark Redman (2-0, 2.00 ERA) was an NL Player of the Week, for June 30-July 6, and Ugueth Urbina received the honor for the week of September 22-28 (0.00 ERA and four saves). Pitcher Tommy Phelps was the Marlins' nominee for the 2003 Roberto Clemente Award.

Pudge Rodriguez was named the Most Valuable Player in the National League Championship Series vs. the Cubs, as he hit in all seven games with a .321 batting average, two home runs and 10 RBI. Josh Beckett was named the World Series MVP, as he went 1-1 with a 1.10 ERA in two starts against the Yankees. Beckett closed out the Series with a complete game 2-0 shutout on October 25, the 19th complete-game shutout in a World Series deciding game in baseball history.

JEFFREY H. LORIA

OWNER

- During a February 12th, 2002 conference call, Marlins Owner Jeffrey H. Loria stated, "Building this team back to championship quality is my main priority." Exactly 620 days later, at 10:54 p.m. on a 50-plus degree October 25th, 2003 night in the Bronx, Mr. Loria's Marlins became World Champions.

- Mr. Loria led the Marlins to the title in his second season, becoming the fastest majority owner to join a franchise and guide it to a World Series title since 1984, Thomas S. Monaghan's first year with Detroit.

- The 2003 Marlins completed a 91-win regular season, one victory from the team's best of 92, in their 1997 Championship campaign. Beginning May 23rd, no team in baseball was better than the Marlins. Since Loria and his management team took over, the Marlins have a 170-154 record, including a 114-91 mark, dating back to August 14, 2002, the eighth-best record in baseball.

- In January of 2003, Mr. Loria's commitment to building a winning tradition in South Florida brought home one of the offseason's top free agents, 10-time All-Star, 10-time Rawlings Gold Glove Award Winner and South Florida resident, Ivan "Pudge" Rodriguez. With his team off to a 16-22 start, Mr. Loria brought in Jack McKeon, a man with a history of quickly turning teams into contenders, on May 11 as the Club's manager. The Marlins went 75-49, a .605 winning percentage, under McKeon, the second-best mark in baseball.

- As his Marlins neared the All-Star Break and moved over the .500 mark, Mr. Loria again confirmed his loyalty to his players and the fans of South Florida by ending all trade speculation concerning Mike Lowell and announcing that the two-time National League All-Star third baseman would remain a Florida Marlin.

- Mr. Loria and the organization then acquired American League saves leader Ugueth Urbina from the Texas Rangers on July 11th to help solidify the team's bullpen and continue a push towards the postseason. With the Marlins contending for the NL Wild Card spot and the news that Mike Lowell's left hand injury on August 30th could end his regular season, Mr. Loria and the organization acted quickly and brought home one of South Florida's baseball heroes, "Mr. Marlin" Jeff Conine, acquiring the outfielder from Baltimore prior to the August 31st midnight trade deadline.

- Mr. Loria's commitment to winning resulted in a Marlins playoff berth as the team clinched the National League Wild Card with a 4-3 win over the New York Mets at home on September 26.

- The 2004 season marks Mr. Loria's third season as Owner of the Florida Marlins. He officially became the third owner in Club history after purchasing the Marlins from John W. Henry on February 15, 2002 and took over the team following the sale's unanimous approval by Major League Owners.

- Mr. Loria was named Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and Managing General Partner of the Montreal Expos on December 9, 1999. In his two seasons in Montreal, Mr. Loria's commitment to field an exciting and competitive club was demonstrated by his investment in payroll and the signing of several key players to long-term contracts to compliment three-time All-Star outfielder Vladimir Guerrero, second base All-Star Jose Vidro and staff ace Javier Vazquez.

- Mr. Loria first became involved in professional baseball in 1989 when he purchased the Triple-A American Association Oklahoma City 89ers, now the Pacific Coast League's RedHawks, which he owned until 1993. He was named the American Association's Executive of the Year in 1992, the same season his Club won the Triple-A Championship.

- Mr. Loria was born in New York City. He received his undergraduate degree from Yale University in 1962 before earning his MBA from Columbia University.

- A leading international Art Dealer since 1962, Mr. Loria specializes in major paintings and sculptures by 20th Century Masters. He is a former member of the Board of Directors of the Art Dealers Association of America and a current member of the Board of Directors for the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law of Yeshiva University in New York City. He is also active in numerous charitable organizations. He is the author of two books, "Collecting Original Art" and "What's It All About Charlie Brown?"

- Mr. Loria spends much time supporting many charities around the world, including hospitals, educational institutions and museums.

- Mr. Loria and his wife, Sivia, have three children, David, who serves as the Marlins' President, Nancy and Samantha. Mr. Loria divides his time between his home in New York and South Florida.

DAVID P. SAMSON

PRESIDENT

- David P. Samson is in his fifth season in Major League Baseball and third as President of the Florida Marlins. He is one of only six current Presidents in Major League Baseball who has presided over a World Series champion.

- As Club President, Samson oversees all aspects of the team's day-to-day business operations, including sales, marketing, operations and personnel matters. Under his leadership in 2003, attendance increased 40%, season ticket sales increased 25% and corporate sponsorship partners quadrupled. Samson also works closely with Chairman Jeffrey H. Loria on all baseball matters and general corporate strategy. Samson is also the President of the Florida Marlins Community Foundation, which focuses its efforts on baseball, arts, and educational needs of the South Florida community.

- During the past year, Samson delivered over 95 speeches in and around South Florida on subjects varying from the business of baseball to general motivation.

- Among his accomplishments, Samson was named one of Sports Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" in 2003. Other highlights in addition to the World Series title included the Florida Marlins being named South Florida's number one Film and Entertainment Company of the Year and Baseball America's Organization of the Year.

- Samson, 36, was born in Milwaukee, WI and raised in New York City. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a Bachelor's in Economics in 1990. He received a Juris Doctor from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in New York City in 1993. He is a member of the New York State Bar.

- Following law school, Samson became President and Founder of News Travels Fast, the first company to deliver the New York Times to Europe on a same-day basis.

- In 1996, Samson joined Morgan Stanley, an investment bank in New York City, a position he resigned in 1999 when he joined the Montreal Expos as Executive Vice President.

- Samson concentrates his charitable efforts on helping underprivileged and sick children experience summer camp and improved education and health care. He and his wife, Cindi, a former school director, have been married for 13 years and have two daughters, Hannah and Kyra, and a son, Caleb.

JOEL A. MAEL

VICE-CHAIRMAN

- Joel A. Mael enters his third season as Vice-Chairman of the Florida Marlins, a position he was named to in February of 2002. Prior to joining the Marlins, Mael worked closely with the Montreal Expos organization, as a financial advisor, for three years. LARRY BEINFEST

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

- Larry Beinfest enters his third season as the Marlins' Senior Vice President and General Manager after a 2003 campaign in which his Club won the World Series Championship and was recognized as the Organization of the Year by Baseball America. Under Beinfest, the Marlins produced a 91-71 record, the third-best mark in the National League, behind Atlanta and San Francisco. The minor league system combined for a 343-340 mark and three postseason playoff berths, a feat accomplished for just the third time in the organization's first 11 seasons.

- Beinfest was named the Rube Foster Legacy Award winner by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum as the 2003 National League Executive of the Year.

- On May 11, Beinfest announced the hiring of 72-year-old manager Jack McKeon to lead the Marlins after the team's 16-22 start. Two days earlier, Beinfest and his staff added 21-year-old left-handed pitcher Dontrelle Willis to the Major League roster. McKeon led the Marlins to a 75-49 record, the second-best record in Baseball over that span, and a 72-42 mark since May 23, the top record in baseball from that date. Willis finished tied for the team lead with 14 victories and was named the BBWAA National League Rookie of the Year. McKeon was named the first BBWAA Manager of the Year in team history.

- Beinfest became the second-fastest active General Manager to win a World Series, behind the Yankees' Brian Cashman, who won the trophy in his first season, 1998. Beinfest is one of six active General Managers to win a World Series, joining Cashman, David Dombrowski, Joe Garagiola Jr., John Schuerholz and Bill Stoneman.

- In his first two seasons as General Manager, Beinfest has led the Marlins to a 170-154 record, a .525 winning percentage. Beinfest's success was rewarded on August 26th when Chairman Jeffrey H. Loria extended his contract through the 2007 season. Beinfest was named to his current post on February 12, 2002.

- Beinfest built the Marlins into a 2003 playoff contender through a number of trades and free agent acquisitions. Prior to the start of the 2002 season, the Marlins acquired Willis and during the year added Carl Pavano and Juan Encarnacion. In the offseason, Beinfest added 14-game winner Mark Redman, Tim Spooneybarger, 2003 team Most Valuable Player Juan Pierre and future Hall of Famer Ivan "Pudge" Rodriguez.

- During the year, Beinfest acquired then-American League saves leader Ugueth Urbina from the Texas Rangers, signed all-time pinch-hit leader Lenny Harris and pitchers Chad Fox and Rick Helling to help strengthen the team during its playoff run. When All-Star third baseman Mike Lowell broke his left hand on August 30th, he acquired Jeff Conine from the Baltimore Orioles prior to the midnight deadline on August 31st.

- Beinfest was named the second General Manager in Marlins history, following David Dombrowski. Prior to joining the Marlins, Beinfest served as the Montreal Expos Interim General Manager, named to that position on October 2, 2001.

- Beinfest, 40, was named the Expos Assistant General Manager on December 3, 1999. He was involved in all aspects of baseball operations, including contract negotiations, salary arbitration and rules and waiver compliance.

- Beinfest began his career in professional baseball in 1989 with the Seattle Mariners and during his 10 years with the Mariners he held several positions including Player Development and Scouting Assistant, Assistant Director of Player Development, Director of Player Development, and Assistant to the Vice President, Baseball Operations.

- Born and raised in Chatsworth, CA, Beinfest was an All-Los Angeles selection as a shortstop at Chatsworth High.

- Beinfest graduated in 1986 from the University of California, Berkeley and has a Master's degree in Public Communications from Syracuse University.

- Beinfest and his wife, Katie, have two children, Madelyn and Mitchell, and reside in Davie, FL.

ANDRE DAWSON

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

- Andre Dawson enters his fifth season with the Marlins and third as Special Assistant to the President. "Hawk" joined the organization on January 5, 2000 as Special Assistant to the General Manager.

- Dawson finished sixth on the Hall of Fame Election results for 2004, collecting 253 votes (50.0%), behind inductees Paul Molitor and Dennis Eckersley and vote recpients Ryne Sandberg, Bruce Sutter and Jim Rice. Last year, Dawson received 248 votes and garnered 214 votes in 2002.

- Dawson played 21 seasons for Montreal, Chicago (NL) and Boston before finishing his career with Florida in 1995-96. He ranks 14th all-time in National League history with 1,476 RBI and ranks among the top 30 in baseball history in home runs (29th with 438), RBI (28th with 1,591) and at-bats (23rd with 9,927). He became the 11th player in Major League history to hit 400 National League home runs when he homered off of Dave West on June 16, 1995 at Veterans Stadium. Dawson hit a three-run home run in his next-to-last game played at Pro Player Stadium on September 22, 1996 vs. Houston. His 438 career home runs are the second-most by a Florida native, behind Fred McGriff (491).

- Dawson won the 1987 National League Most Valuable Player Award in his first season with the Chicago Cubs when he set career highs with 49 home runs and 137 RBI. He became the first player in MLB history to win an MVP Award while playing for a last place team. He finished second in voting for the 1981 MVP.

- An eight-time National League All-Star and Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner, Dawson totaled 2,774 hits and 314 stolen bases. He is the only player in Major League history to reach double digits in home runs and stolen bases for 12 consecutive seasons. He tied a Major League record by hitting two home runs in one inning in 1978 and 1985. He won the Jackie Robinson National League Rookie of the Year Award in 1977.

- Dawson, 49, his wife, Vanessa and their children Darius (8/12/89) and Amber (9/5/90), reside in Pinecrest, Florida. Dawson graduated from Southwest Miami Senior High School in Miami and Florida A&M University in Tallahassee. Following the 1987 season, South Miami honored him by renaming a street Andre Dawson Drive.

McKeon also became the oldest manager to win a World Series.
- Became the oldest Major League manager to reach the postseason for the first time... was 72 years and 10 months old on the regular season's final day, nearly 10 years older than the previous record-holder, Burt Shotton (62 years, 11 months) in 1947 when he led the Brooklyn Dodgers to the N.L. pennant.
- Became the 12th manager to replace a fired manager and lead his team to the postseason... was the seventh manager to take his team to the World Series (first since 1983 - Philadelphia's Paul Owens) and was the second to win the World Series, joining the Yankees' Bob Lemon (who replaced Billy Martin) in 1978.
- Named the seventh manager in Marlins history on May 11, 2003, replacing Jeff Torborg... at the time, was 72 years old, the third-oldest manager in Major League history, behind Connie Mack (88) and Casey Stengel (75) and the fifth-oldest manager in the four major pro sports (Mack, Stengel, Marv Levy and George Halas).
- Posted a 75-49 record (.605) in his 124 games with the Marlins... in comparison, Jim Leyland, the skipper of the 1997 World Champion Marlins, went 72-52 in his first 124 contests.
- Won his debut as Marlins manager on May 11 vs. Colorado, his 771st career win as a Major League manager... became the fifth manager to win his Marlins' debut, joining Rene Lachemann, Cookie Rojas, John Boles and Jim Leyland.
- On July 6 in Philadelphia, became the 63rd manager in Major League Baseball history to claim his 800th victory... during the 2003 season, passed Buck Rodgers (784) and Johnny Oates (797) in all-time managerial victories.
- The Marlins represent the fifth team managed by McKeon, as he skippered the Kansas City Royals, Oakland A's, San Diego Padres and Cincinnati Reds, and the fourth team McKeon has taken over during the season...
- Has a 223-205 (.521) record in the years when he took over a team midseason... posted an 11-4 record against teams he previously managed, including a 5-1 mark vs. the San Diego Padres, a 4-2 record vs. the Cincinnati Reds and a 2-1 record vs. the Oakland A's.

MANAGING / COACHING CAREER

- Led the Reds to an 85-77 record and a second place finish in the National League's Central Division in 2000... won his 700th game on May 7 vs. St. Louis, in a 9-7 victory... on October 2, the Reds announced they would not renew his contract... spent two-plus seasons with the Reds, managing 550 games and notching a .529 winning percentage (291-259)... his 291 wins ranked ninth on the Reds' all-time list.
- Celebrated his 50th season in professional baseball in 1999 as he was named the National League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America, guiding Cincinnati to a 96-67 record, improving the team's mark by 19 games, from a 77-85 finish in 1998... was the first Reds manager to receive the BBWAA award... saw his Reds fall one game shy of a postseason berth, as they fell to the New York Mets in a one-game playoff, 5-0, on October 4... the 96 victories were a personal best... was also named The Associated Press Manager of the Year, the third Reds manager to garner the award (also Fred Hutchinson in 1961 and Sparky Anderson in 1972 and 1975)... was second to Atlanta's Bobby Cox in the voting for The Sporting News Manager of the Year... also received both the Manager of the Year Award and the Distinguished Service to Baseball Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association... was inducted into both the New Jersey Sportswriters Hall of Fame and the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame.
- Went 77-85 in his first full season as the Reds manager in 1998, his lone sub-.500 record with Cincinnati.
- Took over as manager of the Reds on July 25, 1997, replacing Ray Knight... began with the Club when they were 43-56, fourth place in the NL Central, 9.5 games behind the Houston Astros... guided the Reds to a 33-30 record over the final 63 games, the best record in the NL Central over that span... moved into the dugout after spending four-plus seasons in the Reds' front office as the Club's Senior Advisor, Player Personnel, a position he was named to on January 6, 1993.

- Spent parts of three seasons, 1988-1990, managing the San Diego Padres... posted a 193-164 record in his 357 games with the Padres.
- Guided the Padres to a second-place finish in 1989, notching 89 wins and a .549 winning percentage... was San Diego's most wins since they went 92-70 in 1984, their National League Championship season... managed 80 games with San Diego in 1990 and had the team tied for fourth in the NL West (37-43)... was relieved of his duties on July 11 and replaced by Greg Riddoch.
- Was named the Padres manager on May 28, 1988, inheriting a fifth-place club with a 16-30 record... after dropping his first game in New York, led a turnaround that saw the Padres go 67-48 over the remainder of the season, the second-best mark in the NL and fourth-best in the Majors... the 67 wins recorded by McKeon were more than San Diego's season total from 1987... finished fourth in both The Sporting News and BBWAA balloting for NL Manager of the Year... received a three-year contract to return as manager on September 14, 1988... had not managed in the Big Leagues for over nine seasons before returning to the bench.
- Managed Oakland in 1977 and 1978, going 71-105 in parts of two seasons... began the 1977 season as manager, but was replaced by Bobby Winkles on June 10 as the A's were 26-27 and in fifth place in the AL West... began the 1978 season as a coach for Oakland and was named manager again on May 23, 1978.
- Received his first taste of Major League managing when he was hired in October of 1972 to lead the Kansas City Royals... in their fifth season of existence, 1972, McKeon led the Royals to an 88-74 record and a second place finish in the AL West... continued with the Royals until July 24, 1975, when he was replaced by Whitey Herzog, with the team in second place and holding a 50-46 record... overall, posted a 215-205 record in 420 games with Kansas City.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGING CAREER

- Posted a 1146-1123 record, a .505 winning percentage, in 17 seasons as a minor league manager... was named Manager of the Year four times: 1958 at Missoula of the Pioneer League, 1961 at Wilson of the Carolina League and back-to-back awards in the American Association, winning with Omaha in both 1969 and 1970... his first experience as a manager came on June 11, 1955 at Fayetteville (NC), when he was named player/manager... had his club in a first place tie until a hand injury on August 6 forced him from the lineup, and management replaced him in a move that allowed one person to handle both jobs... following his stint with Kansas City, managed at Richmond in the International League in 1976 and led Denver of the American Association in 1979, following his two-year stay in Oakland.

FRONT OFFICE/MANAGEMENT CAREER

- Prior to returning to the dugout on July 25, 1997, served as the Reds' senior advisor for player personnel, consulting with General Manager Jim Bowden on trades, player evaluations and special assignments... joined the Reds organization in January 1993.
- Served as the Vice President/Baseball Operations with the San Diego Padres from 1980-90, when he earned the nickname "Trader Jack" for his penchant for multi-player deals... engineered some 45 trades during his tenure in the Padres front office, in a role that began on an interim basis in July of 1980... assumed the full-time role in September of 1980, a month after his first trade, a four-player swap that sent Mark Lee and Kurt Bevacqua to Pittsburgh for Rick Lancellotti and Luis Salazar... his biggest trade came on December 8, 1980, an 11-player deal with St. Louis, with the major players involved being Terry Kennedy to San Diego and Rollie Fingers to the Cardinals.
- In 1984, led the Padres to their first World Series berth, as San Diego fell to the Detroit Tigers, four games to one in the World Series.
- Before joining the Padres, worked for the Oakland A's as assistant general manager, scouting director, manager, scout and coach under owner Charles Finley.
- Prior to his employment with the A's, spent three seasons, 1965-1967, as a scout for the Minnesota Twins.

PLAYING CAREER

- In 1949, was signed by the Pirates organization as a catcher... in 1951 at Burlington he caught 139 of his club's 140 games... had his best offensive season in 1958, when he hit .263 for Missoula of the Pioneer League... in 1951, as a 21-year-old player/manager, he led his Sampson (NY) Air Force Base team to the Air Force championship... played 10 seasons in the minors, with the exception on the 1951 season, when he was in the military service.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

- John Aloysius McKeon married Carol Isley on October 29, 1954... they have four children, daughters Kristi (7/27/60) and Kori (7/21/64) and sons Kelly (8/31/61) and Kasey (7/7/67).
- Kasey, while working for the Cleveland Indians, signed Sean Casey... he also served as a Major League scout and national cross checker for the Reds... he currently works for the Colorado Rockies as a Special Assistant to General Manager Dan O'Dowd.
- McKeon's son-in-law Greg Booker pitched nine seasons in the Major Leagues and was the pitching coach for the San Diego Padres from June of 2001 to May of 2003.
- McKeon attended The College of the Holy Cross and Seton Hall University before graduating from Elon College in North Carolina with a Bachelor's of science degree in physical education.
- Was a starter on the New Jersey high school state champion basketball squad at St. Mary's in South Amboy.

2003 SEASON

- Set single-season career bests with nine wins, 24 games pitched and 23 game starts, as he posted a 3.04 ERA in his second full season in the Majors.
- Finished the regular season winning three of his last four decisions over six starts, with a 2.16 ERA (10 ER in 41.2 IP), with a .213 BAA... included a victory in his final start of the year, September 24 vs. Philadelphia (4 ER in 7.0 IP)... overall, had a 2.55 ERA after the All-Star Break, the eighth-best post-ASB ERA in the NL.
- Matched his career best in wins when he collected his sixth victory on August 17 vs. San Diego, tossing a career best 8.0 innings, allowing two runs on five hits with two walks and eight strikeouts... set his career best with his seventh victory on September 3 vs. Pittsburgh, as he pitched 7.2 shutout innings of three-hit ball, walking five and fanning seven.
- Made his first career Opening Day start on March 31 vs. Philadelphia and took the loss, allowing seven runs (two ER) on five hits with four walks and one strikeout in 2.2 innings... he became the ninth-youngest Opening Day starter since 1980 at 22 years, 320 days and the second-youngest Opening Day starter in 2003, as Cleveland's C.C. Sabathia (22 years, 253 days) surpassed him by 67 days.
- Posted a pair of two-game winning streaks: July 21 vs. Montreal and July 26 vs. Philadelphia... in those games, allowed one run on 14 hits with four walks and 16 strikeouts over 13.0 innings, a 0.69 ERA... had his second two-game streak from September 3 vs. Pittsburgh and September 8 at New York... were the third and fourth two-game winning streaks of his career.
- Opened the season with a 1-2 record and a 4.05 ERA in his first four games, allowing 14 runs (nine ER) over 20.0 innings... followed that with a five-game stretch, from April 20-July 1, when he went 2-1 with two ND and a 2.70 ERA (9 R, 8 ER in 26.2 IP)... saw the stretch end when he allowed a season-high six runs on a career-high 10 hits on 6.0 innings in a 6-3 loss at Chicago on July 7.
- Fanned a season-high 11 in a 7.0-inning September 14 no-decision against Atlanta... was one strikeout shy of his career best of 12, done on September 21, 2002 vs. Montreal.
- Recorded seven quality starts in his last eight outings, back to August 17 vs. San Diego (15 ER in 56.2 IP), a 2.38 ERA... overall, posted 15 quality starts in his 23 starts on the season.
- Started in Florida's two biggest offensive games of the season, both victories over Atlanta... on April 5 at Atlanta (17-1 FLA), outdueled Greg Maddux, allowing one run on six hits in 6.0 innings... also started Florida's 20-1 home win over Mike Hampton, allowing one unearned run on three hits in 6.0 innings.
- Went 3-0 with a 2.70 ERA in his final five home starts of the season, back to August 17 vs. San Diego... began his home slate with a 4-3 record and a 2.64 ERA in nine games... overall, went 7-3 with a 2.67 ERA at home, as the Marlins won 10 of his 14 starts at Pro Player Stadium.
- Collected a win on September 8 at New York, his first road win since April 5 at Atlanta... ended a stretch of seven road games (0-4, 4.89 ERA), from April 15-August 23.
- Was placed on the DL on May 9 (retroactive to May 8) with a right elbow sprain... left his start on May 7 vs. San Francisco after one inning, was examined by team physician Dr. Dan Kanell after his exit and was referred to Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Alabama on May 8... made two rehab starts, the first coming on June 23 for Class A Jupiter vs. Palm Beach (3.0 IP, 2 H, 0 R, 0 BB, 5 SO)... followed with an assignment on June 26 with AA Carolina vs. Mobile (4.0 IP, 2 R, 4 H, 0 BB, 7 SO).
- Was activated from the DL on July 1 and started that night vs. Atlanta... in that game, allowed one unearned run on three hits in 6.0 innings.
- Pitched shutout appearances on September 3 at Pittsburgh (7.2 IP) and September 8 at New York Mets (6.0 IP), the first time he pitched consecutive shutout starts in his career... went 17.2 innings over three starts without allowing a run, including those two outings.
- The Marlins went 13-11 in Beckett's 24 regular season games, including 13-10 in his starts... struck out 152 batters in 142.0 innings, an average of 9.63 strikeouts per nine innings... fanned seven or more batters 14 times and fanned more batters than innings pitched on nine occasions.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

- Saw 15 games with the Marlins, recording a 1-0 mark with a 5.27 ERA after joining the Club on August 24... allowed eight runs over 13.2 innings with Florida... replaced RHP Josh Beckett, who was placed on the DL.
- Made his first Marlins appearance on August 25 at San Diego and collected the victory, tossing one perfect inning... was his first Major League outing since July 23, 2001 at Baltimore and his first victory since September 18, 1996 vs. Florida, with Philadelphia... ended a span of 29 games pitched without a victory.
- Began his Florida career with four straight scoreless outings over 4.1 innings, August 25-September 1... allowed three hits and one walk with one strikeout over that span.
- Saw his ERA jump from 0.00 to 9.53 over his next two outings (September 4 at NYM and September 6 at PIT) as he allowed six runs (six ER) on five hits over 1.1 innings, a 40.50 ERA.
- Followed those outings with four straight scoreless appearances, September 8-14 (2H, 1 BB, 4 SO)... allowed two runs (two ER) over his final nine games of the season, spanning 8.0 innings, a 2.25 ERA... issued one walk and struck out nine over that span, including no walks over his last eight games (September 12-28) and two strikeouts in a game three times (September 8 at PIT, September 25 at MON and September 28 vs. PHI).
- Finished the year with four straight scoreless outings, September 19-29, allowing two hits with five strikeouts.

- Made two Major League appearances with Anaheim in his third year in the Angels organization, compiling an 0-1 record with a 10.80 ERA... had his contract purchased by the Angels on July 21 and was outrighted back to AAA on July 25.
- Allowed five runs (four earned) over 3.1 innings with the Angels, pitching in two games vs. Baltimore at Camden Yards... made his season debut and took the loss on July 22, allowing four runs (three ER) on six hits in 2.1 innings... allowed one run on two hits with one walk in 1.0 inning on July 23.

- Began the season in Philadelphia, pitching at the AA, AAA and Major League levels... had his contract purchased from AAA Scranton on May 31... designated for assignment on July 1 and elected free agency on July 6... signed by Florida on July 14 and joined AAA Charlotte for the remainder of the season.
- Made six appearances for the Phillies and was 0-0 with a 5.00 ERA... allowed runs in four of his six outings, including each of his last three games... allowed one run over his first three games (3.1 innings), but saw four runs score over 5.2 innings in his last three appearances.

1997

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from New York (NL) on February 6, 1998 along with LHP Jesus Sanchez, RHP Brandon Villafuerte and a PTBNL (OF Cesar Crespo on September 14, 1998) in exchange for LHP Al Leiter and INF Ralph Milliard.

2003 SEASON

- Saw his season end after four starts and an 0-2 record (4.70 ERA) as he underwent Tommy John surgery on his right elbow on April 29... the surgery to repair the torn elbow ligament was performed in a 90-minute procedure by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Alabama... estimated recovery and rehabilitation time is approximately 12-18 months for Tommy John patients.
- Began the season on the disabled list (retroactive to March 21) with synovitis in his right elbow... went 2-1 with a 3.09 ERA in four spring training starts, covering 11.2 innings... tossed 2.2 innings vs. Baltimore on March 15 in Ft. Lauderdale before leaving the game with right forearm tightness... visited Dr. Andrews on March 19, when he was diagnosed with synovitis.
- Pitched a simulated game on April 4 in Jupiter, tossing 4.0 shutout innings (1 H, 1 BB, 4 SO).
- Made his regular season debut on April 9 vs. the New York Mets and allowed two runs on five hits with two walks and four strikeouts over 7.0 innings, recording a no-decision.
- Made his first road start on April 14 at Philadelphia and took his first loss of the year, allowing three runs on four hits in 5.0 innings, walking five and fanning a season-high seven.
- Faced the Mets for a second time on April 19, in New York, allowing three runs (two ER) in 5.1 innings, collecting his second no-decision in as many starts vs. New York.
- Fell to 0-2 after allowing a season-high five runs on four hits in 5.2 innings on April 25 vs. St. Louis... walked a season-high six batters and fanned six in the outing.
- The game vs. St. Louis was his eighth straight outing without collecting a victory... last earned a win when he tossed a three-hit shutout against the San Francisco Giants at Pro Player Stadium on August 18, 2002.

- Established new single-season career highs with 12 wins, a 3.30 ERA, 31 games pitched, 29 games started, seven complete games, five shutouts, 204.1 innings pitched and 203 strikeouts... was named the most improved Marlin by the South Florida chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA).
- Posted the third-highest season strikeout total (203) and the fourth 200-plus strikeout season in franchise history... surpassed Al Leiter's 200 in 1996 and finished behind Kevin Brown (205 in 1997) and Ryan Dempster (209 in 2000)... ranked sixth in the National League and seventh in the Majors with 203 strikeouts.
- Established a career high with 12 strikeouts on July 27 at Montreal, tied for the second-best single-game total in Marlins history (with Bobby Witt on June 20, 1995 vs. LA and Josh Beckett on July 21, 2002 vs. MON)... collected four double-digit strikeout games on the season (11 on June 15 vs. TB and June 30 at TB and 10 on May 10 vs. LA)... overall, ranked 7th in the NL and 9th in the Majors with 8.94 strikeouts per nine innings.
- Posted the Club's fourth-best single-season ERA, behind Brown (1.89 in 1996 and 2.69 in 1997) and Leiter (2.93 in 1996)... finished 14th in the National League in ERA, 2.55 at home (5th in NL) and 4.06 on the road.
- Ranked second in the NL and fourth in the Majors with a .209 opponent batting average... ranked third in the Majors with a .190 opponent batting average at home... ranked seventh in the NL and 12th in the Majors with a .227 road opponent batting mark.
- Led the Majors by tossing five shutouts, a Marlins single-season record, besting Brown's three in 1996... all five of his shutouts came at home: vs. the Braves on April 14 (4 H, 3 BB, 8 SO in 9.0 IP), the Rays on June 15 (3 H, 3 BB, 11 SO in 9.0 IP), the Indians on June 20 (2 H, 4 BB, 3 SO in a rain-shortened 6.0 IP), the Cardinals on August 1 (4 H, 3 BB, 7 SO in 9.0 IP) and the Giants on August 18 (23 H, 2 BB, 9 SO in 9.0 IP).
- Finished tied for third in the Majors (with KC's Paul Byrd) with seven complete games, one behind co-leaders Bartolo Colon and Randy Johnson... the mark is the second-best single-season total in Marlins' history, behind Livan Hernandez's nine in 1998... threw six of his seven complete games at home.
- Led the NL and was third in the Majors, allowing 6.74 hits per nine innings... allowed 5.98 hits per nine innings at home (2nd in Majors), and 7.50 hits per nine innings on the road (8th in NL).
- Finished fifth in the NL, averaging 104.8 pitches per game, behind Randy Johnson (114.2), Russ Ortiz (108.4), Glendon Rusch (106.5) and Livan Hernandez (105.0).
- Set a new career-high with his 12th win on August 18 vs. San Francisco, his final victory of the season... tossed a complete-game shutout against the Giants, allowing three hits and two walks with nine strikeouts.
- Posted three career-long three-game winning streaks, the fourth, fifth and sixth of his career... after a 2-2 start, won three consecutive starts, April 25-May 5, at home vs. Houston, at St. Louis and at Milwaukee... also won three straight starts, July 22-August 1, vs. Atlanta, at Montreal and vs. St. Louis, combining to allow three ER over 23.0 IP, a 1.17 ERA.

- Went 3-0 with a 1.74 ERA over four starts, June 5-20, including consecutive shutouts: June 15 vs. TB and June 20 vs. Cleveland... became the second Marlin pitcher to post back-to-back shutouts, with Pat Rapp (17-0 at COL, September 17, 1995 and 3-0 vs. NYM, September 22, 1995)... threw 18.0 consecutive scoreless IP (June 10-25), T-7th-longest scoreless streak in Club history and the 6th-longest by a starter.
- Hit his second career home run on June 25 vs. Philadelphia, off Robert Person, the 17th in Marlins history.
- Dropped a season-high three straight games (in successive starts, all on the road), from May 15-26, after opening the season 5-2 with a 2.50 ERA over his first eight starts... over the three losses, allowed 14 ER in 18.2 innings, a 6.75 ERA.
- Was placed on the disabled list on August 19 with a right acute bone bruise... was activated from the DL on September 14 and made four appearances after his return... in the four games, allowed seven runs (6 ER) on 11 hits in 13.1 innings, a 4.05 ERA.... two of the four outings were in relief... allowed five runs (five ER) in 2.2 relief innings, recording all eight of his relief outs via a strikeout.

- Tossed the third no-hitter in Club history, one of two in the Majors in 2001, en route to an 11-win season.
- Threw the 203rd no-hitter of baseball's modern era (since 1900), the 98th in NL history and the third in Marlins history in a 3-0 win at San Diego on May 12... joined Al Leiter (5/11/96 vs. COL) and Kevin Brown (6/10/97 at SF) as the only Marlins to accomplish the feat... struck out seven and walked nine, equaling the Club record for walks in a game (Al Leiter, 5/22/96 at Cincinnati)... also hit a batter and threw a wild pitch.
- Became the first pitcher in the modern era to issue nine walks in a complete game nine-inning no-hitter... the record for walks in a no-hitter is 10, by Cincinnati's Jim Maloney in a 10-inning no-hitter at Chicago (NL) on August 9, 1965... was second only to Maloney in baserunners allowed in a no-hitter, with Maloney allowing 12 (10 BB, one error, one HBP) and Burnett allowing 10 (nine BB, one HBP).
- Was the eighth Marlin to be named NL Player of the Week and the third Marlins pitcher to be honored, going 1-1 with a 0.60 ERA in two starts from May 7-12, allowing one run on three hits over 15.0 innings.
- Tossed the second complete game two-hitter in Club history in a 6-1 win on June 9 at Toronto, walking one and striking out six in 9.0 innings... was the ninth time in Club history that a pitcher allowed two hits or fewer in a complete game... joined Kevin Brown as the only Marlins pitchers to accomplish the feat twice... allowed a run in the third inning, ending a streak of 18.2 consecutive scoreless innings... was 2-0 with a 0.35 ERA (1 ER in 25.2 IP) over three starts from May 29-June 9.
- Held opponents to a .231 BAA, the 5th-lowest mark in the NL (.213 by RHH and .247 by LHH).
- Began the season with a 5-2 record and a 1.83 ERA over his first eight starts... was 1-7 with a 4.61 ERA (36 ER in 58.2 IP) over 10 starts from July 29-September 26, including five losses in six decisions with a 7.49 ERA, from July 29-August 27... equaled a career high by losing four straight games from July 29-August 16 (0-4, 7.48 ERA).
- Struck out a season-high eight and earned his third straight win in a July 22 home win over the Reds.
- Went 4-0 with a 3.03 ERA in Interleague play, tying for the most wins in Interleague play with Detroit's Jeff Weaver (4-0) and Oakland's Mark Mulder (4-1).
- Dropped three straight games (June 20 at Atlanta, June 25 vs. Montreal and June 30 at Philadelphia) with a 6.45 ERA (16 ER in 22.1 IP) after going 3-1 with a 1.07 ERA in four starts from May 29-June 15.
- Posted the shortest start of his career on June 30 at Philadelphia, allowing six runs on seven hits and walking five in 3.1 innings in the Marlins' 6-4 loss.
- Began the season on the 15-day DL with a stress fracture to the fifth metatarsal in his right foot... diagnosed during an examination by Dr. Robert Mills in Fort Lauderdale on February 22... was placed on the 15-day DL on March 31 retroactive to March 23... had his injury rehab assignment recalled on May 1 and made his season debut on May 7 at LA vs. Kevin Brown.

- Went 3-7 with a 4.79 ERA in 13 starts... made his season debut in the second game of a doubleheader against Atlanta on July 20, allowing three hits and one run over 7.0 innings in a 6-1 Marlins win.
- Hit his first career homer on August 28 off St. Louis pitcher Rick Ankiel... was the 15th homer hit by a Marlins pitcher and the 10th Marlin pitcher to accomplish the feat... struck out a season-high 10 hitters in the contest.
- Hit the fourth triple by a Marlins pitcher on September 27 off Montreal's Tony Armas, joining Jesus Sanchez, Ryan Bowen and Chris Hammond... joined Hammond as the only Marlins pitchers to hit a homer and a triple.
- Ranked second in the Majors with a .280 (7x25) batting average, among pitchers with at least 25 at-bats.
- Finished the season by earning his third win, allowing two runs (one earned) on three hits in 6.2 IP in the Marlins' 6-3 win over Montreal on September 27... the win snapped a four-game losing streak from September 3-21 during which he went 0-4 with a 7.96 ERA.
- Went 1-1 with a 2.91 ERA in five starts in August, allowing three runs or less and tossing at least 6.0 innings in all five starts... allowed just four hits in three straight starts, August 11-22.
- Suffered a complete rupture of his ulnar collateral ligament in his right thumb during pitcher's fielding practice on Tuesday, March 14 at Spring Training in Viera... surgery was performed on March 21 by Dr. Brian Fingado at Holy Cross Hospital in Fort Lauderdale.

1999

- Won four of six decisions with a 3.48 ERA in seven starts... made his Major League debut August 17 at Los Angeles in a spot start for Alex Fernandez and became the first starting pitcher in Marlins history to earn a win in his debut... allowed one run on five hits in 5.2 innings, with two walks and four strikeouts... collected his first Major League hit off Mike Judd in his second at-bat.

- Made his second start and began his career 2-0 with a 1.69 ERA after a win on August 28 at Houston... allowed one earned run on four hits in 5.0 innings.
- Dropped his first two decisions of September before closing out the season with two wins and a no-decision in his final three starts (2-0, 1.89 ERA).

2003 SEASON

- Played in 86 games with the Marlins, hitting .268 with 12 homers and 62 RBI after being selected from AA Carolina on June 20... played 55 games in left field and 30 games at third base... the Marlins went 54-31 in Cabrera's 85 starts, 20-10 at 3B and 34-21 in LF... hit .250 (51x204) with eight homers and 37 RBI in his games in LF and .303 (33x109) with four homers and 25 RBI in his games at 3B.
- Ranked among the NL's rookie leaders in home runs (2nd), RBI (2nd), slugging percentage (.468, 1st), extra-base hits (36, T-4th), batting average (7th) and multi-hit games (T-9th).
- Made his debut on June 20 vs. Tampa Bay and hit a two-run game-ending HR in the bottom of the 11th inning, the 11th Marlin to homer in his debut with the Club and fifth Florida rookie to do so, joining Alex Gonzalez (8/25/98), Mike Redmond (5/31/98), Charles Johnson (5/6/94) and Mitch Lyden (6/16/93).
- Became the third player in baseball since 1900 to hit a walk-off homer in his Major League debut, joining California's Bill Parker (9/9/71 vs. MIL) and Cleveland's Josh Bard (8/23/02 vs. Seattle)... the HR by Cabrera and Parker were their first Major League hits and came in extra innings (Parker's in 12th inning).
- Debuted at 20 years, 63 days old, the second-youngest Marlin to debut in franchise history, behind LHP Felix Heredia (20 years, 52 days).
- According to David Vincent at SABR, Cabrera became the sixth-youngest player to homer in his first game, behind LOU's (American Association) Scott Stratton (18.021 on 4/21/1888), NYG's Whitey Lockman (18.345 on 7/5/1945), DET's Denny McLain (19.176 on 9/21/1963), CIN's Ted Tappe (19.224 on 9/14/1950) and KC's Clint Hurdle (20.050 on 9/18/1977)... also was the third Venezuelan player to homer in his first game and second Marlin, joining ARI's Alex Cabrera (28.184, 8th inning on 6/26/00) and FLA's Alex Gonzalez (21.191, 8th inning on 8/25/98).
- Began his Major League career by hitting in five of his first six games (.261, 6x22, HR, 6 RBI)... followed with a 0x15 slide over four games (June 27-30) before posting a career-high four hits on July 1 vs. Atlanta.
- On July 1 vs. Atlanta, became the second Marlin in team history to post four extra-base hits in a game (with Sheffield on April 10, 1994 at SD)... matched a Club single-game record by scoring four runs (10th time in team history)... homered twice in that game, off Mike Hampton and Roberto Hernandez... collected 12 total bases in the game, one off the team record of 13, done by Sheffield on April 10, 1994 at San Diego.
- Had a career-best four RBI twice: July 1 vs. Atlanta and September 13 vs. Atlanta.
- Homered in consecutive games: August 14 (vs. LA) and 15 (vs. SD) for the first time in his Major League career.
- Named the Pepsi Rookie of the Month for July as he hit .318 (27x85, 5 HR, 21 RBI), joining teammate Dontrelle Willis, who earned the honor in June... also named Pepsi Rookie of the Month for September, as he hit .311 with three homers and 20 RBI.
- Pushed his average to a season-best .279 by hitting in 14 of 15 games, from August 9-24 (.368, 21x57), including a career-best 11-game streak (August 9-20, .381, 16x42)
- Suffered through a 1x33 slide from August 26-September 3... ended the slide by hitting in six straight games (September 4-9) and 13 of 15 games (.386, 22x57)... completed the season with a .333 batting average (27x81, 3 HR, 20 RBI) in 23 games after the slide.
- Hit in 12 of his final 16 games of the season (.364, 20x55)... was tied for 7th in the NL with 20 September RBI... drove in 48 runs after the All-Star Break, tied for 11th in the NL.
- Posted a .375 BA with runners in scoring position (36x96), tied for 4th in the NL... hit .294 (5x17) with RISP prior to the All-Star Break and .385 (30x78) after the Break... was fifth in the NL with a .381 (16x43) BA with RISP and two outs, behind Arizona's Kata (.440) and Milwaukee's Perez (.421) and Ginter (.394).
- Hit .365, 10 HR, 59 RBI and nine SB in 69 games at AA Carolina... left the Southern League ranking 2nd in batting, first in hits, RBI, doubles, extra-base hits and slugging (.609)... ranked second in OBP and third in runs scored... was twice named the BC Powder Southern League Hitter of the Week: April 18-24 (.517, 15x29) and April 25-May 1 (.500, 12x24).. posted a 15-game hitting streak, April 22-May 8, the longest in the Southern League in 2003... hit .491 (28x57) during the streak.
- Played 64 games at 3B and three games in LF with the Mudcats... hit .402 in April, .336 in May and .351 in June... collected 34 multi-hit games and 13 multi-RBI games on the season... did not go more than two straight games without a hit all season... was hitless on May 28 and 29 vs. Tennessee.
- Entered 2003 as the top prospect in the Marlins' minor league system and 12th-best prospect overall by Baseball America.
- Played in 15 regular season games for Aragua (Venezuela) during the offseason, hitting .327 with four homers and 11 RBI... added a .288 mark with seven homers and 15 RBI in 20 playoff games as his team won the Venezuelan League title.

2003 POSTSEASON

- Played in 17 games, hitting .265 and setting rookie records for homers (four) and RBI (12).
- Hit his first playoff homer on October 7 at Chicago off Carlos Zambrano, the second-youngest player to homer in the postseason, at 20 years, 182 days old (behind Andruw Jones, 19 years, 178 days on 10/17/96 vs. STL)... also homered off Mark Prior (10/8), Kerry Wood (10/15) and Roger Clemens (10/22).
- Went 4x5 on October 4 vs. San Francisco, matching the Major League postseason record for hits by a rookie, joining NYY's Derek Jeter (1996 ALCS G1), LA's Chad Fonville (G2 1995 NLDS), NY Giants' Freddie Lindstrom (1924 WS G5) and STL's Joe Garagiola (G4 1946 WS).
- Began the postseason hitless in his first nine at-bats before hitting in eight straight contests (October 4-15), batting .400 (14x35) over that span.

THE LOU BROCK AWARD

Juan Pierre set a Marlins' franchise record and career best with 65 steals in 2003, winning the Lou Brock Award for the most stolen bases in the National League. It marked the second straight year a Marlin has won the award. In 2002, Luis Castillo took home the honor with 48 stolen bases. Castillo is a two-time Lou Brock Award winner, the other coming in 2000 (62 steals). Five times in the franchise's first 11 seasons, Florida has produced the stolen base leader in the National League. In 1993, Chuck Carr swiped 58 bases, and in 1995 Quilvio Veras had 56 steals. Five times a Marlin was the Lou Brock winner, for most steals in the National League: Pierre, Castillo (twice), Carr and Veras.

MULTIPLE LOU BROCK AWARD WINNERS

In 1978, the National League announced that its annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him. Seven players have won multiple Lou Brock Awards, including Florida's Luis Castillo. Below is a look at the players to tally multiple Lou Brock Awards:

Omar Moreno	PIT	(1979 and 1980)
Tim Raines	MON	(1981, 1982, 1983 and 1984)
Vince Coleman	STL	(1985, 1986, 1987, 1988, 1989 and 1990)

2003 SEASON

- Established single-season career bests with 18 home runs, 77 RBI and 57 extra-base hits, playing in a career-high 150 games... hit .256, collecting 135 hits in 528 at-bats... set Marlins records for home runs and RBI by a shortstop, surpassing the marks of 17 homers and 60 RBI, done by Kurt Abbott in 1995.
- Ranked fifth among National League shortstops with a .976 fielding percentage, committing 16 errors in a career-high 685 total chances... committed two errors in his last 53 games... reduced his errors total by 10 from his last full season (2001), when he committed 26 errors in 642 chances... made three errors in 188 total chances in 42 games in 2002, a season ended by a dislocated left shoulder.
- Was second among NL shortstops in HR, behind Chicago's Alex Gonzalez (20) and third among NL shortstops in RBI, behind St. Louis's Edgar Renteria (100) and Montreal's Orlando Cabrera (80).
- Hit .352 (32x91) in 24 April games, the eighth-best batting average in the National League in the month... had career bests of six homers and 22 RBI in the month, a .670 slugging percentage... added a .310 batting mark in May (27x87), the first time he posted consecutive .300-plus batting months in his career.
- Set career highs with 33 walks, surpassing his previous best of 30, done in 2001... was hit by a pitch 13 times, besting his previous mark of 12, from 1999... drew 13 intentional walks, surpassing his career total of seven, entering 2003... his .314 on-base percentage and .443 slugging percentage each set new career-bests, ahead of his .308 OBP and .430 SLG from 1999.
- Hit in a season-high 10 straight games, May 28-June 7, the third double-digit hitting streak of his Major League career... hit .419 (13x31) with a homer and 10 RBI over that span.
- Tied his career high with five RBI on April 5 at Atlanta.
- Had his third career two-homer game on April 4 at Atlanta, off Kevin Gryboski and Darren Holmes... also homered twice on June 20, 2000 vs. Milwaukee and July 13, 2001 vs. the New York Yankees.
- Hit four homers over a three-game span, April 3-5 (vs. Philadelphia and at Atlanta)... capped a stretch when he went 7x11 after opening the season hitless in his first seven at-bats.
- Went deep on June 18 and 19 vs. New York (NL) and on August 21 at Colorado and 22 at San Francisco... the homer against the Rockies was his 14th of the season, matching his single-season best, done in 1999.. the home run against the Giants set his new mark.
- Hit 12 of his 18 homers in his first 66 games (March 31-June 19)... after that, went 34 homerless games... ended that slide with a homer off HOU's Jeriome Robertson on August 2... hit six homers in his final 84 games.
- Ended his season by hitting in nine of his last 11 games (.286, 11x38), including a two-run homer off the Mets' Jeremy Griffiths in the third inning on September 28.
- Hit in 19 games over a 22-game stretch, from May 14-June 7, hitting .371 (29x78) over that span... pushed his batting average to .340 as of June 8, ranking fourth in the NL in hitting at that time... after that, hit .206 (66x321) over the remainder of the season (93 games).
- Had his batting average at .300 or better through July 2... from then, hit .203 (49x241) over his final 72 games.
- Did not go more than three straight games without a hit for his first 120 games... saw that streak end when he went hitless in a season-long seven straight games, August 26-September 2, as part of an 0x23 slide.
- Hit .327 with three homers and seven RBI in 13 regular season games and .297 with one homer and six RBI in 11 postseason games for Caracas in Venezuela.

2003 POSTSEASON

- Started all 17 games, hitting .161 with four doubles, one home run and six RBI... began the playoffs with a .087 batting average (4x46) with four RBI in his first 13 games... hit in each of his final four games at a .375 clip (6x16) with two doubles, a homer and two RBI.
- Hit a walk-off homer off RHP Jeff Weaver in the 12th inning of Game 4 of the World Series, the first walk-off homer in Marlins postseason history and the 13th time that a World Series game ended on a home run, first time since October 31, 2001 (Derek Jeter in bottom of 10th in Game 4 vs. ARI)... became the third player in Baseball history to have his first career postseason homer come as a World Series walk off, joining Dusty Rhodes (1954 NYG vs. CLE) and Eddie Matthews (1957 MIL Braves vs. NYY) and was the third player to hit a walk-off homer against the Yankees in World Series play, joining Bill Mazeroski (1960 G7) and Eddie Matthews (G4 1957).

- Played in 42 games before his season ended on May 18 at San Francisco due to a dislocated left shoulder... suffered the injury in the third inning at Pac Bell Park, diving for a ball hit in the hole by Barry Bonds... on the season, hit .225 with seven doubles, one triple, two home runs and 18 RBI.

- Collected his first home run of the season and had a season-high three RBI on April 6 at Philadelphia.

- Hit his 100th Major League homer and 24th of the season (tying his previous season best) on June 25 off New York Mets RHP Steve Trachsel.
- Became the fourth Marlin to hit 30 homers when he took HOU's Jeriome Roberston deep on August 2.
- Went into the All-Star Break with a career-high 28 home runs, tied for second in the NL and tied for third in the Majors... ranked fourth in the NL with 76 RBI prior to the Break... established new Marlins pre All-Star Break records in homers and RBI, surpassing the HR mark of 25, set by Gary Sheffield in 1996 and the RBI mark of 70, previously held by Cliff Floyd in 2001.
- Hit nine homers in June, tying the Club record for homers in June (with Jeff Conine in 1995)... homered in consecutive games four times, including in a career-high three straight contests: April 3 vs. Philadelphia and April 4 and 5 at Atlanta... posted three two-homer games: May 13 at San Diego, June 3 vs. Oakland and June 15 at Texas... had four HR over five games, April 26-30, and four over four games, May 11-14.
- Entered the Break 2x31, with both hits as home runs: off Montreal's Claudio Vargas on July 13 and Javier Vazquez on July 11... hit in 10 straight games after the Break (part of his season-best 11-game hitting streak) and in 18 of his first 19 games after the Break, from July 21-August 10 (.392, 29x74).
- Tied a team record with three doubles on April 28 at Arizona.

2003 POSTSEASON

- Played in 15 games and hit .196 with two homers and five RBI... became the sixth player in MLB postseason history to hit a pinch-hit homer in extra innings when he hit a solo shot in the top of the 11th inning off the Cubs Mark Guthrie, giving Florida a 9-8 win in Game 1 of the NLCS on October 7 at Wrigley Field... was Lowell's second career PH homer.

- Played in a career-high 160 games, batting .276 with 44 doubles, 24 home runs and 92 RBI... the 44 doubles, 597 at-bats, 88 runs scored and 165 hits each represented new single-season highs.
- Was named to the 2002 National League All-Star team for the first time... went 2x3 in the game.

- His career-high 44 doubles finished second in the NL (PHI's Bob Abreu had 50)... the doubles mark is tied for the 2nd-best single-season total in Marlins' history with Cliff Floyd in 2001 and behind Floyd's 45 in 1998.
- Posted a career-high 16-game hitting streak, September 3-16, the second of his career... hit .364 (24x66, 6 2B, 3 HR, 13 RBI) over the streak... had his first 16-game streak from August 18-September 5, 2000.
- Hit .311 (105x338, 31 2B, 14 HR, 58 RBI) in 88 games prior to the All-Star Break, ranking 11th in the NL... posted a .232 average (60x259, 13 2B, 10 HR, 34 RBI) in 72 games after the Break.
- Received his second NL Player of the Week award for the season's final week (September 23-29), as he hit .364 (8x22) with five home runs and seven RBI, leading the league in homers and total bases (25) over that span... also received the honor from August 28-September 3, 2000.
- Ended his season by hitting five home runs in his last six games, including two homers twice over that span: September 24 at Montreal (off Britt Reames and Dan Smith) and September 28 vs. Philadelphia (off Brandon Duckworth), the third and fourth two homer games of his career.
- Led the Majors with a .385 batting average in April (40x104, 26 games).
- Combined for a .181 batting average in July and August, notching 31 hits in 171 at-bats... hit .145 (12x83) in 26 August contests, including a career-long 0x28 slide from August 6-16.
- Matched his career high with four hits in a game on April 10 vs. Montreal and April 30 at St. Louis.
- Recorded his 300th career RBI on July 20 vs. Montreal, hitting a two-run homer off the Expos Dan Smith.
- Hit an extra-base hit dry spell over 24 games, from August 6-September 3, collecting only one double (August 24 at SD) over that span... collected 16 extra-base hits (8 2B, 8 HR) over his final 26 games of the season.

2001

- Recorded 100 RBI, the sixth Marlin in team history to reach the mark, as he hit a career-best .283 with 18 home runs... notched his 100th RBI on the season's final day, going 2x5, 2B, 3 RBI on October 7 at Atlanta.
- Collected a season-high 14-game hitting streak, April 18-May 4, and hit .345 (19x55).
- Posted his best month of the year in April as he hit in 19 of 22 contests with a .302 average (26x86, 12 2B, 3 HR, 24 RBI)... registered 24 RBI in April and June, matching his single-month career RBI mark, the second and third times in his career... also had 24 RBI in April of 2000.
- Ranked third in the Majors with a .976 fielding percentage at third base, committing nine errors in 377 total chances... his nine errors were the fewest by a third baseman in Club history, passing the 12 set by by himself in 2000 and Terry Pendleton in 1996.
- Established a new career high by collecting four hits in four at-bats, including a first inning two-run homer off Todd Ritchie on June 6 vs. Pittsburgh.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed by Florida as a free agent on January 29, 2004.

2003 SEASON

- Posted a 13-11 record with a 5.04 ERA in 33 games (career-best 32 starts) with Colorado... the wins matched his 1997 total (13-12 with Texas) and fell one shy of his career best of 14, done with the Rangers in 1996... began the year as a non-roster invitee to Spring Training... led the Rockies staff in wins while tying Jason Jennings for the team lead in starts...the 13 wins were the second most by a left-hander in Rockies history, trailing Mike Hampton's 14 in 2001... the Rockies went 18-14 when Oliver took the mound.
- Was second on the Rockies with 180.1 IP and third with 88 strikeouts... shared the team lead with Jennings with 15 quality starts... worked 6.0-plus innings 16 times... went 7.0-plus four times and 8.0 innings once.
- Allowed opposing batters to hit .284 against him, including .256 by LHH and .292 by RHH.
- Led the Rockies staff in batting (.254), runs (six), hits (17) and RBI (eight)... his eight RBI were a career best, two more than the six RBI with St. Louis in 1999... hit safely in 13 of his 32 starts, with four multi-hit games.
- Went 0-2 in his first four outings with a 6.52 ERA (14 ER in 19.1 IP), including a no-decision against Randy Johnson and Arizona in his debut on April 5... picked up his first win on April 27 vs. Chicago, when he allowed three runs in 7.0 innings, his first win since May 6, 2002.
- Earned a 2-1 win over Cleveland on June 4, tied for the third-lowest scoring game in Coors Field history.
- Made his lone relief appearance in Game Two of a June 7 DH vs. Kansas City, allowing one run in 2.2 IP.
- Went 7-1 over nine games, June 19-August 3... posted a 4.28 ERA over that span, allowing 26 ER in 54.2 IP... was 4-0 with a 3.41 ERA over five starts (June 19 to July 10), working at least 6.0 innings in each outing and allowing three or fewer runs in each... was the first time he won four straight decisions since April 4-20, 2001... after seeing his win streak snapped on July 19 at San Francisco, won his next three starts, July 23-August 3, with a 4.00 ERA.
- On July 10 vs. San Francisco, hit his first career homer, a 445-foot shot to center off Brian Powell.
- After a 10-6 start, dropped five straight decisions over six starts from August 9-September 6, with a 6.07 ERA (20 ER in 29.2 IP)... the skid fell one shy of matching his career-long losing streak of six, done June 16-September 30, 2000... on August 9, matched his career high in runs (nine) and ER (eight) allowed.
- Was forced to leave in the first inning of his August. 20 start vs. Florida due to a bruised left foot, struck by a line drive off the bat of Luis Castillo.
- Tossed his lone complete game in a 3-0 loss at LA on August 31... allowed three unearned runs in the game.
- Ended his losing slide with a 9-4 victory at St. Louis on Sept. 11, the first of three straight wins over four games to end the season, from September 11, with a 4.98 ERA (12 ER in 21.2 IP).
- Was the beneficiary of a Rockies' club record 20 runs scored in a 20-9 win over Arizona on September 23, his 13th and final victory of the year... allowed four runs over 5.0 innings.

- Opened the year with Boston after being traded to the Red Sox on December 13, 2001 in a deal that sent OF Carl Everett to Texas... with Boston, went 4-5 with a 4.66 ERA, allowing 30 ER in 58.0 innings.
- Earned his 700th strikeout on June 23 at LA when he appeared in relief and caught Shawn Green looking.
- Tossed his fourth career complete-game shutout on April 30 vs. Baltimore (8 H)... was his first shutout since August 3, 1999 vs. San Diego and the first by a Red Sox lefty since Frank Viola did it April 18, 1993.
- Went 4-1 with a 3.18 ERA over his first six games, allowing 12 ER over 34.0 innings... after his win over Tampa Bay on May 6, dropped each of his final four decisions over eight games, with a 6.75 ERA (18 ER in 24.0 IP).
- Was designated for assignment June 25 and released by the Red Sox on July 2.

2001

- Ranked second on the Rangers in wins (11) and third in starts (28), innings pitched (154.0) and strikeouts (104) as he went 11-11 with a 6.02 ERA in 28 game starts.
- Began the year 4-0 with a 5.24 ERA, matching his best career start and the best start by a Texas southpaw since Mike Mason went 4-0 in 1986.
- Placed on the DL on May 8 with a laceration on his left thumb...at the time of his injury, was 4-1 with an 8.16 ERA in seven games, having allowed 13 ER in 6.1 innings over his last three games after his 4-0 start.
- Came off the DL on June 6 and went 3-1 in his next five starts, compiling a 3.26 ERA (11 ER in 30.1 IP).
- Threw a complete-game July 21 at Tampa, his first since September 7, 1999, snapping a string of 135 incomplete games, five short of the Major League record... allowed two runs in 8.0 innings and took the loss.
- After winning three of four decisions, from June 6-28, dropped four straight starts, from July 3-21 (7.13 ERA)... won four of six decisions, from July 26-September 2, before ending his season on a three-game losing streak over his final four starts.

2000

- Went 4-0 with a 2.09 ERA in eight game starts for Santurce in Puerto Rico during the offseason.

2002

- Saw his only action with the Atlanta Braves on April 6, in an 11-2 Mets win at Turner Field... entered the game in the top of the ninth inning with the bases loaded and two outs... allowed a three-run double to Rey Ordonez, a RBI double to Joe McEwing and walks to Roger Cedeno and Roberto Alomar before ending the nine-run frame with a strikeout of Mark Johnson... overall, was charged with one run on two hits in 0.1 IP.

1998

- Appeared in 47 games with Oakland and Arizona and posted a 4-2 record with a 5.59 ERA, over 67.2 innings.
- Began the year with the A's and ended the year with the D-Backs after being claimed on waivers on June 26.
- Posted a 1-1 record with a 7.25 ERA in 24 relief appearances with the A's... tossed a season-best four straight scoreless outings, from May 20-26, covering 4.1 innings... notched his lone victory on April 28 at Tampa Bay, as he tossed 2.2 innings of one-hit scoreless ball.
- Saw six appearances of 2.0 innings or more with Oakland, including a 4.0-inning stint on June 19 at Seattle.
- Went 3-1 with a 3.69 ERA in 23 relief outings with Arizona... tossed a shutout inning in his Diamondbacks debut, July 1 at Chicago, the first of 13 straight scoreless games to open his Arizona career... the scoreless streak reached 15.2 innings before Bobby Abreu's homer on August 20 at Veterans Stadium.
- Threw one pitch to earn his first Arizona win on July 19 vs. Colorado, including a foul fly ball from Dante Bichette... added a pair of wins in consecutive appearances, August 29 vs. Milwaukee and September 2 at Pittsburgh, collecting 2.0 shutout innings in the two victories.
- Allowed runs in six of his last 10 games, increasing his Arizona ERA from 0.00 to 3.69.

1997

- Made 71 Major League appearances with Oakland, establishing an A's rookie record, seven more than Bob Lacey in 1997... led the team with nine wins (9-5, 4.28 ERA), while his 96.2 innings were the most by an A's reliever since Jeff Parrett worked 98.1 in 1992.
- Began the season retiring 20 of his first 25 batters faced and ended the year by retiring 17 of his last 20 faced... overall, stranded nine of his 10 inherited runners.
- Won each of his first two games, April 9 vs. Boston (1.0 IP) and April 11 at New York Yankees (3.0 IP).
- Tossed 3.0 scoreless innings on April 23 vs. Minnesota for his first Major League save.
- Saw his ERA increase from 2.45 to 5.13 over 20 appearances, from May 18-July 6, allowing 22 ER over 23.1 innings, an 8.49 ERA... went 2-3 with two saves over that span.
- Lowered his ERA from 5.13 to 3.96 over his next 30 games, from July 10-September 14, allowing runs in eight of the contests... over that span, posted a 2.58 ERA (10 ER in 38.1 IP).
- Allowed one homer in his first 35 games, including none in 28 straight, April 29-July 3... also went 26 straight games without allowing a homer, July 19-September 14, until allowing three on September 19 vs. Seattle.
- Ended his season with two wins in his last four outings, allowing one run in 4.2 innings... was part of a 38-game stretch, back to July 1 through the end of the season, when he went 4-1 with a 3.51 ERA.

- Was part of three organizations prior to the start of the year... was claimed off Florida waivers by Seattle on January 23 and was claimed by Oakland off Mariners waivers on January 29... made the A's Opening Day roster, his first of two stints with the Club... went 1-3 with an 8.16 ERA in 12 games, including three starts.
- Was 0-1 with an 8.16 ERA in his first stint with the A's, from April 3-26, covering eight games and 14.1 innings... had a 2.53 ERA over his first six games, allowing three ER in 10.2 innings... allowed 11 runs (10 ER) on seven hits with 10 walks and two strikeouts over his next two games (3.2 IP on April 23 and 26) before being optioned to AAA on April 27.
- Rejoined the A's for the entire month of September, appearing in four games and posting a 1-2 record with an 8.16 ERA, allowing 14 runs (13 ER) in 14.1 innings... took the losses on September 14 at Cleveland and September 24 vs. Texas, falling to 0-3 on the season.
- Collected his first win of the year in his final outing, September 29 vs. Seattle, as he allowed one run on four hits in 5.0 innings.

1995

- Joined the Marlins in a trade from Toronto on April 26... joined Florida in September and made his NL debut on September 2 at Houston... went 1-0 with a 1.42 ERA in seven relief outings with the Marlins.
- Tossed one shutout inning in his September 2 debut, allowing one hit and two walks with one strikeout.
- Collected his first Major League win in his second outing, September 3 at Houston, as he allowed his first NL run, an unearned tally, in 1.0 inning.
- Did not allow an earned run in six of his seven Florida games... allowed his lone ER in his third game, September 9 vs. Atlanta, in 1.0 inning... pitched four scoreless outings (3.1 IP) to end the season.

1994

- Made his Major League debut with the Toronto Blue Jays on June 11 vs. the New York Yankees, one day after his first call up... allowed two runs on five hits with two walks in 2.0 innings before being optioned back to AAA Syracuse on June 16.

2003 SEASON

- Made a career-high 50 appearances (44 relief outings and six starts), posting a 3-4 record with a 4.67 ERA in 81.0 innings... was 1-3 with a 5.40 ERA in his starts and 2-0 with a 4.23 ERA in relief (24 ER in 51.0 IP).
- Went 1-3 with a 5.46 ERA in 27 games (six starts) prior to the All-Star Break... went 2-1 with a 2.70 ERA in 22 contests after the Break... allowed a .286 batting average prior to the Break and a .205 average after... had a 0.75 ERA in nine August contests, covering 12.0 innings.
- Made each of his six starts in his first 17 games, through May 28... made his first start of the year in his second appearance, April 4 at Atlanta, and collected a no-decision, allowing two runs in 5.0 innings.
- After 10 straight relief outings (April 10-30, 6.92 ERA), returned to the starting rotation for five straight starts, May 4-28... had a no-decision on May 4 at Houston (2 ER in 6.0 IP) before dropping three straight starts: May 10 vs. Colorado, May 17 at Los Angeles and May 22 at Montreal... went 0-3 with a 9.69 ERA in those starts (14 R, 14 ER in 13.0 IP)... allowed a .339 batting average in the starts.
- The three losses to open the year extended his losing streak to a career-long six straight games over 25 games (nine starts), dating back to August 27, 2002... in those games, posted a 7.00 ERA (49 ER in 63.0 IP).
- Ended his six-game losing streak with a win on May 28 vs. Montreal, as he pitched 6.0 shutout innings, allowing five hits and two walks with four strikeouts... was his first victory since a start on August 16, 2002 vs. San Francisco (1 ER in 6.0 IP).
- Returned to the bullpen on a permanent basis on June 1 vs. Cincinnati, where he pitched his final 33 games (3.41 ERA)... did not allow an earned run in seven straight games (June 1-24, 10.1 IP, 1 unearned run).
- Saw his relief scoreless streak end on June 27 at Boston, when he allowed five runs on four hits in 0.0 innings, joining with starter Carl Pavano to fail to retire a batter in a 14-run Boston first inning... was the first time that two pitchers failed to record an out to open a game since Kansas City Royal RHPs Wayne Simpson and Ken Wright on May 5, 1973 at Milwaukee... followed that game by allowing runs in three of his next four games (3 ER in 5.1 IP).
- From July 24 through the end of the season, made 21 appearances, covering 21.1 innings, allowing six ER on 13 hits, a 2.53 ERA.
- Recorded a six-pitch 0.1-inning save on August 17 vs. San Diego, as he retired Ryan Klesko on a popout... was his first save since April 3, 2002 at Montreal.
- Collected two wins in six appearances, September 4 vs. Pittsburgh and September 23 vs. Philadelphia... had the victories by pitching a total of one inning and throwing nine pitches... tossed eight pitches in the seventh inning to down the Pirates, fanning Jack Wilson and getting Rivera on a lineout... threw one pitch to Phillies first baseman Jim Thome in the seventh inning on September 23 for his third win of the season... was the third time in his career that Tejera had a one-pitch appearance and was the first time he collected a win.
- Allowed six home runs on the season, with five coming in his first 15 games... in his 35 games since, allowed one homer, a two-run shot by the Phillies' Jim Thome, in a 14-0 Philadelphia win.
- Produced a 2.76 ERA in 29 outings at home... allowed seven ER in his first seven home games (10.2 IP, a 5.91 ERA)... after that, allowed six ER in 31.2 innings over his last 22 home contests, a 1.71 ERA.
- Had a 2.43 ERA in 27 relief appearances at home, compared to a 7.64 relief ERA in 17 road games.
- Allowed a .267 batting average, including .392 (31x79) against left-handed hitters... allowed first batters a .275 average (11x30)... allowed 11 of 31 inherited runners to score (35.5%).

2003 POSTSEASON

- Made two appearances, both in the NLCS vs. Chicago, and went 0-1 with a 6.75 ERA and a .333 opponent batting average in 1.1 innings... pitched on October 8 at Wrigley Field (1 H, 1 SO in 1.0 IP) and on October 10 at Florida (L, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 H in 0.1 IP).

- Made 29 relief appearances on the season and was 1-0 with one save and a 2.91 ERA... began the year pitching out of the bullpen, making 24 relief appearances, April 3-June 8... returned to the pen for his final five outings of the year, September 17-27.
- Joined the Marlins' starting rotation on June 11 at Kansas City and made 18 straight starts, through September 12... posted a 7-8 record with a 4.94 ERA in his starts, totaling 105.2 innings of work.

- Opponents hit .269 against him, including .289 in his starts and .202 in relief.
- Collected his first Major League save and third career professional save in his first outing of the year, April 3 at Montreal... threw one pitch and retired Lee Stevens on a lineout to center field... was his first save since he collected two in the Gulf Coast League in 1995.
- Collected his first Major League win on May 2 at St. Louis as the Marlins matched a franchise record for biggest comeback in a victory... Florida erased a 6-0 third-inning deficit in a 9-6 win... pitched a perfect sixth inning to collect the victory.
- Made his first start of the season and second of his career on June 11 in Kansas City... took the loss, pitching 4.0 innings, allowing four runs on seven hits in a game called due to rain after six innings and the Royals leading 6-0... was his first Major League start since September 8, 1999 vs. Los Angeles.
- Pitched six innings of shutout ball in his first home start of the year, June 16 vs. Tampa Bay... collected wins in each of his next five five home starts and was 5-0 with a 1.64 ERA over the six home starts, allowing seven ER in 38.1 innings and a .201 batting average.
- Went 0-5 with a 7.36 ERA in six road starts, allowing 29 runs (27 ER) on 48 hits in 33.0 innings and allowed opponents to hit .338 in his road starts.
- Saw his five-game home winning streak end on July 24 vs. Atlanta, allowing a career-high nine runs on a career-high 11 hits in 6.0 innings vs. the Braves.
- Tossed seven shutout innings vs. the Brewers on August 4 (4 H, 1 BB, 6 SO)... following the game, married Michelle Garrido in a private ceremony for friends and family in Miami.
- Ended his season on a career-long three-game losing streak... took each of the three losses over a four-start span, August 27-September 12 (21 ER in 17.1 IP) with a 10.90 ERA.
- Concluded his season with five shutout relief outings, September 17-27... tossed 7.2 innings, allowing two hits and two walks with five strikeouts.
- Pitched a career-long 4.0 innings in relief on May 29 vs. Cincinnati, with five strikeouts.
- Threw a career-high 8.0 innings on August 21 in a no-decision at Los Angeles, allowing two runs on six hits... compiled a career-best nine strikeouts in a victory over the Chicago Cubs on July 1 at home.
- Hit his first Major League home run on June 26 vs. Philadelphia, a solo shot off RHP Brandon Duckworth in the second inning... posted his first career multi-hit and multi-RBI game in his next start, July 1 vs. the Cubs, going 2x3 with two RBI and a run scored.

2000

- Did not pitch after undergoing surgery on April 4 to repair a complete rupture of the ulnar collateral ligament in his left elbow... the surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews at HealthSouth Hospital in Birmingham, Alabama.

1999

- Recalled from AA Portland on September 7... made his Major League debut with a start September 8 vs. Los Angeles and allowed two runs on five hits with two walks and one strikeout in 2.0 innings pitched.
- Followed with a scoreless 1.2 innings pitched at Cincinnati on September 11, allowing only one walk with two strikeouts... closed out his season by allowing a career-high six runs on five hits with two walks and four strikeouts in 2.2 innings on October 3 at Atlanta... overall, had an 11.57 ERA, allowing eight ER in 6.1 innings.

2003 SEASON

- Named the National League Rookie of the Year and was the winner of the Larry Doby Award (NL Rookie of Year) by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, as he set the Marlins single-season record for wins by a rookie and finished tied for the team lead with 14 victories (14-6, 3.30 ERA) in 27 starts... finished tied for the second-most wins by a Florida left-hander in team history, behind Al Leiter's 16 in 1996.
- Was one of four rookie pitchers to tie or lead their team in wins, with Houston's Jeriome Robertson (15) and Arizona's Webb and Villarreal (10 each).
- Selected to the NL All-Star team, replacing injured LA RHP Kevin Brown... went 9-1 with a 2.08 ERA in his 13 outings prior to the Break... was Florida's fifth All-Star pitcher and the sixth Marlins All-Star pitching selection... was the youngest NL All-Star since STL's Pujols in 2001 and youngest All-Star pitcher since NYM's Dwight Gooden in 1985... overall, ranked as the 11th-youngest pitcher named to an All-Star team.
- The Marlins went 19-8 in Willis' starts this season, including 11-4 at home and 8-4 on the road.
- Joined the Marlins on May 9, when he was selected from AA Carolina, replacing the injured Josh Beckett... made his Major League debut that night, facing Colorado and collecting a ND (6.0 IP, 3 R, 7 H, 2 BB, 7 SO)... fanned Preston Wilson to lead off the 2nd inning for his first Major League strikeout.
- Collected his first Major League win in his second start, May 14 at San Diego, as he allowed three runs on five hits in 5.0 innings... set his career best with nine strikeouts in his fourth career start, May 25 at Cincinnati (8.0 SHO IP, 6 H)... also had nine SO on September 18 at Philadelphia.
- Began his Big League career with a 1-1 record and a 7.07 ERA over his first three starts before posting an 8-0 record with a 1.05 ERA (8 ER in 68.1 IP) over his next 10 starts (May 25-July 13), including wins in seven consecutive starts (May 25-June 26)... the eight-game winning streak is tied for the third-longest in team history (with Chris Hammond, May 26-July 2, 1993), behind the nine-game streaks by Pat Rapp (August 11-September 27, 1995) and Livan Hernandez (June 28-August 31, 1997)... the wins in seven straight starts are tied for the second-longest consecutive games won streak in team history (with Livan Hernandez, June 28-August 4, 1997, and Alex Fernandez, July 23-August 19, 1997), behind LHP Chris Hammond, who won eight consecutive starts, May 26-July 2, 1993.
- Became the first rookie since NYM's Isringhausen in 1995 to win seven straight starts, according to the Elias Sports Bureau... he also became one of four pitchers since 1920 to win eight of his first 10 starts before the age of 22, joining LHP Fernando Valenzuela (with LA in 1981), RHP Mark Fidrych (with DET in 1976) and RHP Paul Dean (with STL in 1934).
- Collected nine wins in 10 decisions, the first rookie to win nine of 10 decisions since LA's Kazuhisa Ishii in 2002... won eight straight decisions, the first rookie to do so since LA's Matt Herges in 2000.
- Tied the Marlins rookie record for wins (previously Brian Meadows - 11-13 in 1999) when he notched his 11th on August 6 at St. Louis (3 ER in 8.0 IP)... set the new standard with his 12th win on September 7 over the Expos in Puerto Rico (1 R, 3 H in 7.0 IP).
- Was named the Pepsi National League Pitcher and Rookie of the Month for June as he went 5-0 with a 1.04 ERA in five starts... became the first player ever to win both awards in the same month since the Rookie of the Month award was instituted in 2001... also became the first rookie to win NL Pitcher of the Month since LA's Hideo Nomo in June of 1995.
- Was named the Pepsi NL Co-Player of the Week for June 16-22, as he shared the honor with Arizona RHP Jose Valverde... earned Florida's 17th Player of the Week Award and the sixth by a pitcher. .. was the first Marlins rookie in Club history to be named Player of the Week.
- Tossed a one-hit complete-game shutout against the Mets on June 16, the first Marlins rookie in Club history to toss a one-hitter (8th in FLA history, 5th by single pitcher)... became the first rookie to allow one hit or less in a CG since STL's Bud Smith no-hit SD on September 3, 2001... at 21 years, 155 days old, was the youngest pitcher to toss a one-hitter since Toronto's Roy Halladay one-hit Detroit on September 27, 1998.
- Threw consecutive complete-game shutouts on June 16 vs New York (NL) and June 21 vs. Tampa Bay, the first Marlins rookie to toss back-to-back CG game shutouts and the first rookie pitcher to toss consecutive CG shutouts since TB's Rolando Arrojo on April 30 (at MIN) and May 6, 1998 (at KC).
- Went 4-0 with a 1.07 ERA in his first six home games of the season (5 ER in 42.0 IP)... had a 23-1 record in 36 career home games (minor and Major League) before his first career Major League home loss (July 20 vs. CHC, 6 ER in 2.0 IP)... was his first home loss since July 5, 2001 vs. Vancouver, pitching for Boise... the loss to the Cubs also ended a streak of 33 games when he went 21-1 with a 1.88 ERA (minor and Major League), dating back to June 3, 2002... the run included a 13-game winning streak when he went 6-0 to finish his stint at Class A Kane County, his 2-0 record with Class A Jupiter (both in 2002), his six starts (4-0) at AA Carolina in 2003 and his first Major League win.

- Suffered a career-long four-game losing streak over five starts, August 11-September 2 (0-4, 6.93 ERA), allowing 19 ER in 24.2 IP... was his second multi-game losing streak of his pro career (first was May 18 and 24, 2002 at Beloit and at Peoria with Class A Kane County)... broke the losing slide with a win on September 7 over the Expos in Puerto Rico (1R, 3 H, 7.0 IP), part of a season-ending five-game stretch, when he went 3-0 with a 2.93 ERA.
- Took his first Major League loss on May 20 at Montreal, allowing five runs in 3.0 innings... the loss ended a 13-game winning streak that spanned 22 starts, back to June 3, 2002... was his first defeat since May 24, 2002 (at Peoria).
- In his six Major League losses, allowed 27 ER over 23.2 innings, a 10.27 ERA. In his 21 other games (14-0, 7 ND, team record of 19-2), allowed 32 ER in 137.0 innings, a 2.10 ERA.
- Collected a hit in 13 of his 27 starts, including 10 of his last 18... posted the seventh-best batting average by a pitcher on the season... hit his first career home run on May 31 off Cincinnati's Danny Graves.
- Went 4-0 with a 1.49 ERA in six starts at AA Carolina, pitching 36.1 innings for the Mudcats... allowed a .194 opponent batting average (.182 to left-handers and .198 to right-handers)... began the season with consecutive no-decisions on April 7 vs. Mobile and April 13 at Birmingham, allowing one ER in 12.0 innings... won each of his last four starts with Carolina, allowing five ER in 24.1 innings, a 1.85 ERA.... ranked fifth in ERA and tied for fourth in wins in the Southern League prior to joining the Marlins.

2003 SEASON IN REVIEW

JUAN PIERRE WAS NAMED THE TEAM'S MOST VALUABLE PLAYER, AS HE SET SINGLE-SEASON CLUB RECORDS AND ESTABLISHED PERSONAL BESTS IN HITS, AT-BATS, STOLEN BASES, MULTI-HIT GAMES AND SINGLES. PIERRE BECAME ONE OF FIVE PLAYERS SINCE 1923 TO COLLECT 200 OR MORE HITS AND 60 OR MORE STEALS IN THE SAME SEASON.

2003 REGULAR SEASON NOTES

McKEON NAMED BBWAA NATIONAL LEAGUE MANAGER OF THE YEAR: On November 12, 2003, the Baseball Writers Association of America named Jack McKeon the National League Manager of the Year. McKeon led the Marlins to a 75-49 record, a .605 winning percentage, after being named skipper on May 11. On that date, Florida held a 16-22 record. The honor marks Florida's first Manager of the Year Award and the second honor by the BBWAA for McKeon, who was also named Manager of the Year in 1999, while with Cincinnati. McKeon received 19 of 32 possible first-place votes and tallied 116 points overall, outdistancing the Cubs' Dusty Baker, who had 62 points.

WILLIS NAMED BBWAA NL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR: On November 10, 2003, pitcher Dontrelle Willis became the first member of the Florida Marlins to win a BBWAA award in the franchise's 11 seasons as he was named the National League winner of the Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year Award. The 21-year old left-hander was listed first on 17 of the 32 ballots cast by two writers from each league city, second on nine and third on six to finish with 118 points, based on a 5-3-1 tabulation system. Willis, who won nine of his first 10 decisions and finished the regular season with a 14-6 record and a 3.30 ERA, was the only player named to every ballot.

TEAM AWARD WINNERS: The South Florida Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America named their 2003 Florida Marlins award winners. CF Juan Pierre was named the team MVP, as he set single-season Club records for hits, at-bats, stolen bases, multi-hit games and singles. Dontrelle Willis was chosen as the Rookie of the Year, as the left-hander went 14-6 with a 3.30 ERA in 26 starts, including 9-1 with a 2.08 ERA before the All-Star Break. Willis established a new Marlins record for wins by a rookie (surpassing Brian Meadows 11 wins in 1998). Carl Pavano was named the Most Improved Marlin, as he set career bests in wins (12) and starts (32). Braden Looper, who set a career highs with six wins and 28 saves, (6-4, 3.78) and was named the Charlie Hough "Good Guy" Award, for the player who best fosters positive relationships with the media.

McKEON A WINNING FACTOR: Jack McKeon took over the Marlins on May 11, when the team was 16-22 and in fourth place in the National League East (behind ATL, MON and PHI). In his 124 games as Florida's skipper, McKeon posted a 75-49 record, a .605 winning percentage. Florida's record since McKeon's arrival was the second-best mark in the Majors. Here is a look at baseball's top teams from May 11:

Atlanta	77-49 (.611)
FLORIDA	75-49 (.605)
San Francisco	75-51 (.595)
Oakland	74-52 (.587)
New York (AL)	74-51-1 (.591)
Boston	72-54 (.571)

On July 6 in Philadelphia, McKeon became the 63rd manager in Major League Baseball history to claim his 800th victory, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

SINCE MAY 23: After winning only three of McKeon's first 10 games, the Marlins won six in a row, beginning May 23 and posted the best record in baseball through the end of the season.

FLORIDA	72-42 (.632)
New York (AL)	72-43-1 (.625)
San Francisco	71-44 (.617)
Atlanta	69-46 (.600)
Oakland	69-47 (.595)
Boston	67-49 (.578)

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A CHANGE MAKES: In the first 38 games prior to Jack McKeon's arrival, the Marlins hit .264 with a 4.29 ERA. In McKeon's 124 games, the Fish hit .266 with a 3.96 ERA.

A MEMORABLE SEASON: Florida's 91 wins marked the second-most in team history, one game off the 1997 World Champions record of 92-70. The 2003 Marlins collected a franchise-record 53 home wins, surpassing the Club's single season home wins mark of 52 (52-29), done in 1996 and 1997. Florida's 38 road wins (38-43) are the second-most in team history, behind their 40-41 mark in 1997. The Marlins secured their second .500 season with their 81st win of the season on September 10 at New York, as they completed a three-game sweep of the New York Mets. Florida guaranteed a winning campaign with win number 82 on September 12 vs. Atlanta. The Fish secured their second postseason berth in team history with a Wild Card clinching win on September 26 vs. the Mets.

MAJOR IMPROVEMENT NOTED: The Marlins improved by 12 victories over 2002's mark of 79-83. The 12-game improvement tied for the third-best in the Majors (with Milwaukee), behind the 21-game increase by the Chicago Cubs and Kansas City Royals.

FANS OUT TO SEE THE FISH: The Marlins drew 1,303,214 fans, an average of 16,290 per game. Florida's attendance increased by better than 60 percent from their 2002 total of 813,111 (10,038 fans per game). The Marlins drew eight crowds of 30,000 or more and in the final six games of the season, 176,729 fans came to Pro Player Stadium to watch Marlins baseball.

ENDING ON A HIGH NOTE: The Marlins ended the season with six wins in their last seven games, capped by their 11th shutout of the season on Sunday, September 28, a 4-0 win over the New York Mets. The Fish set a franchise record for most wins in the month of September, going 18-8. Their previous best was a 15-11 mark, done in 1996. Florida won 15 of their final 21 games of the year and went 21-8 in their last 29 games, back to August 29.

GOING WILD IN THE EAST: The Marlins set a franchise record with 48 wins against the National League East. Florida's .631 winning percentage against the East was the second-best winning mark by a team against their own division, behind San Francisco (54-23 vs. NL West, a .701 win %). Florida's previous best was 36 wins (36-40), done in 2002.

HOME IS WHERE THE WINS ARE: The Marlins ended their season with nine wins in their last 11 home games and tallied 27 wins in their last 34 games at Pro Player Stadium, dating back to July 21.

2003 REGULAR SEASON NOTES

JUST THAT CLOSE: The Marlins set a franchise record by scoring 751 runs, besting their previous mark of 742, done in 2001. The Fish posted their best season average of .266 (rounded out to .2657559), ahead of the 1994 Marlins (.2656647) by .0000912 points.

A TRIO OF MARLINS ALL-STARS: 2B Luis Castillo, 3B Mike Lowell and LHP Dontrelle Willis became the third trio of Marlins to be named to the All-Star Game in franchise history. In 1996, Kevin Brown, Al Leiter and Gary Sheffield were named to the 1996 Midsummer Classic while Moises Alou, Brown and Charles Johnson were each chosen in 1997. Lowell played three innings at third base and collected a double in the sixth inning. Castillo played five innings at second base and went 0x2. Willis did not pitch in the game.

WHAT A YEAR FOR PIERRE: In his first season with the Marlins, Juan Pierre set club marks for hits, stolen bases, multi-hit games, singles and at-bats. Pierre established personal career bests with 204 hits, 60 multi-hit games, 65 stolen bases (1st in Majors) and 668 at-bats (1st in NL), while becoming the third Marlin to play in all 162 games. Pierre collected his 201st, 202nd and 203rd hits on September 26 vs. New York and recorded the final putout of the night, as the Marlins clinched the NL wild Card. He also collected two stolen bases in the game, his 63rd and 64th steals of the season, setting a new Florida record, surpassing Castillo's 62 steals in 2000. Pierre is one of five players in the last 80 years (1923) to collect 200 or more hits and 60 or more steals. Below is a look at that list:

1962	Maury Wills (LA)	208 hits, 104 SB
1971	Lou Brock (STL)	200 hits, 64 SB
1980	Willie Wilson (KC)	230 hits, 79 SB
1996	Kenny Lofton (CLE)	210 hits, 75 SB
2003	JUAN PIERRE (FLA)	204 HITS, 65 SB

SETTING RECORDS: Pudge Rodriguez set the Marlins single-season records for batting average (.297) and RBI (85) by a catcher. He surpassed the marks of .273 BA by Benito Santiago in 1994 and the 75 RBI by Johnson in 2001. Derrek Lee set career highs in home runs (31) and RBI (92), the most homers and RBI in a single season by a Florida first baseman. Luis Castillo's six homers matches Florida's top single season home run mark by a second baseman, as Kurt Abbott hit six in 1997. Mike Lowell set third baseman marks with 32 homers and 105 RBI, besting the 24 homers he hit in 2002 and his 100 RBI in 2001. Alex Gonzalez set the season homer mark by a shortstop (18), one better than Kurt Abbott in 1995. He also set the RBI mark (77), surpassing the 60 by Abbott in 1995. Juan Pierre set the best single-season batting average mark by a center fielder (.305), besting the .280 mark by Preston Wilson in 1999.

BIG SEASON FOR LOWELL: Mike Lowell hit a career-high 32 home runs, the second-best single-year record in team history, behind the 42, hit by Gary Sheffield in 1996. Lowell became the fourth Marlin to post a 30-homer season, when he took Jeriome Robertson deep in the first inning on August 2 vs. Houston. Lowell's 105 RBI is tied for the fourth-best single-season total in franchise history, with Jeff Conine in 1995, behind the 121 by Preston Wilson in 2000, the 120 by Gary Sheffield in 1996 and the 115 by Moises Alou in 1997. Lowell's 105 RBI season marks Florida's seventh 100 or more RBI in a year in franchise history. Lowell is the first to do it twice, as he had 100 in 2001.

LEE-DER SHIP: During the month of August, first baseman Derrek Lee became Florida's all-time extra-base hits and home runs leader. Lee's fifth-inning double on August 20 at Colorado was his 287th extra-base hit as a Marlin, setting the Club's new record. Lee surpassed the mark of 286, previously held by OF Cliff Floyd. Lee homered off Pittsburgh's Pat Mahomes on August 26, becoming the Club's all-time leader (123) ahead of Gary Sheffield (122). Lee matched Sheffield's mark with his homer on August 24 at San Francisco, off Scott Eyre. Lee concluded 2003 with 129 Florida homers and 306 extra-base hits, both tops in Marlins history.

LEE STREAK ENDS AT 315: Derrek Lee's franchise-record 315 consecutive games played streak ended on July 29, as he missed the game due to a subluxed right shoulder, an injury suffered on July 28 vs. Arizona. Lee's streak was the third-longest active run in the Majors, behind Tejada and A-Rod. Prior to July 29, Lee last did not play on August 10, 2001 vs. Houston. Lee originally set the team record with his 308th straight game on July 21 vs. Montreal.

PUDGE MAKES IMPACT: Pudge Rodriguez joined the Marlins as a free agent on January 22, 2003 and started 135 games behind the plate, one off the Marlins single-season record held by Benito Santiago in 1993. Overall, Pudge played in 144 games, his most games since he saw action in 144 games with Texas in 1999. Pudge finished tied for fourth in the NL in batting with runners in scoring position (.375).

BIG INNING, BIG WIN: The Marlins matched their franchise record for most runs in a single inning with eight runs in the eighth inning on July 25 vs. Philadelphia. The eighth frame marked the eighth eight-run inning in team history, with the last time being on September 17, 2001 at Montreal (6th inning).

PAIR OF BIG FISH AID FLORIDA PEN: On July 11, the Marlins acquired RHP Ugueth Urbina and cash from Texas in exchange for 1B Adrian Gonzalez, OF Will Smith and LHP Ryan Snare. Urbina joined the Marlins with 200 career saves, as he became the 32nd pitcher in MLB history to record 200 saves, on July 9 vs. Minnesota. As a Marlin, Urbina went 3-0 with six saves and a 1.41 ERA in 33 games. On August 8, the Fish signed right-hander Chad Fox. Fox made 21 appearances in black and teal, posting a 2.13 ERA.

MR. MARLIN RETURNS: On August 31, the Marlins acquired INF/OF Jeff Conine from the Baltimore Orioles in exchange for minor league right-handers Denny Bautista and Donald Levinski. Conine made his second Marlins debut on September 1 vs. Montreal and collected a RBI in his first at-bat, a sac fly to right field, plating Juan Pierre. Conine hit his first Florida homer since rejoining the Club on September 10 at New York, his 99th home run as a Marlin. He became the sixth Marlin to hit 100 homers with the team when he took Philadelphia's Brett Myers deep on September 17 at Veterans Stadium. On September 25 vs. Philadelphia, Conine collected his 435th and 436th RBI as a Marlin on a sixth-inning two-run single, reclaiming the Club's all-time RBI lead. Mike Lowell, who has 435 Florida RBI, passed Conine to take the lead on August 8 at Milwaukee (his 423rd RBI), on a fourth-inning single. Conine ended the season hitting in five of his last six games, batting .381 (8x21) with three homers and eight RBI.

PITCHERS SET CAREER WIN MARKS: Josh Beckett (9 wins), Carl Pavano (12), Brad Penny (14), Mark Redman (14) and Dontrelle Willis (14) each posted career highs in wins. It marked the first time in franchise history that the Marlins had four double-digit winning pitchers.

2003 REGULAR SEASON NOTES

ON THE HILL AT THE PRO: The Marlins ranked second in the NL and third in the Majors in home ERA (3.17). The Los Angeles Dodgers led the Majors with a 2.75 ERA, followed by the Oakland A's (3.02). On the road, the Marlins ranked 12th in the NL in road ERA (4.98).

WILLIS THE ALL-STAR: Dontrelle Willis became the 11th-youngest pitcher chosen to a Midsummer Classic when he was named as a replacement for LA's Kevin Brown. The 10 pitchers younger than Willis were: Dwight Gooden (twice, 19.237 in 1984 and 20.242 in 1985), Bob Feller (twice, 19.245 in 1938 and 20.250 in 1939), Jim "Catfish" Hunter (twice, 20.095 in 1966 and 21.094 in 1967), Jerry Walker (20.172 in 1959), Fernando Valenzuela (20.281 in 1981), Hal Newhouser (21.047 in 1942) and Ralph Branca (21.155 in 1947). Willis, at 21 years, 184 days old, is the youngest player named to an All-Star Game since STL's Albert Pujols in 2001 (21.175) and the youngest pitcher since NYM's Dwight Gooden in 1984 (19.236).

WILLIS SWEEPS AWARDS: Marlins LHP Dontrelle Willis was named the Pepsi National League Pitcher and Rookie of the Month for June. Wills became the first player ever to win both awards in the same month since the Rookie of the Month award was instituted in 2001. Willis is also the first rookie to win NL Pitcher of the Month since LA's Hideo Nomo in June of 1995.

DOING WELL WITH DONTRELLE: The Marlins went 19-8, a .704 winning percentage, in games started by Dontrelle Willis. Florida's .704 winning mark with Willis on the hill is tied for the third-best mark in the NL and fifth-best record in the Majors. Below is the list:

San Francisco	Jason Schmidt	(.828, 24-5)
Oakland	Tim Hudson	(.765, 26-8)
Seattle	Jamie Moyer	(.758, 25-8)
Atlanta	Russ Ortiz	(.706, 24-10)
Florida	Dontrelle Willis	(.704, 19-8)
San Francisco	Kirk Rueter	(.704, 19-8)

FLAWLESS FIELDING: The Marlins set a franchise record with nine straight errorless games, September 7-17. The nine straight errorless games surpassed Florida's previous mark of eight straight, set by the 1999 Marlins (April 16-24) and the 1994 Marlins (July 14-22). The Marlins went 91.0 innings without an error over that stretch. The Fish posted a .997 fielding percentage on the season, the top mark in team history and the third-best mark in the Majors, behind Seattle (.989) and St. Louis (.987).

MORDY, MORDY: Mike Mordecai hit two homers in 2003, both extra-inning game-winners. He hit his first homer on July 23 at Atlanta, off RHP Trey Hodges in the 12th inning. His next hit came on August 13 off LA's LHP Victor Alvarez, in the 11th. The homer on July 23 was his first as a Marlin, ending a streak of 164 games (298 AB) without a homer.

IN BACK-TO-BACK STYLE: Mordecai's second HR of the season followed Ramon Castro's extra-inning HR (13th inning) on August 12 vs. LA. It marked the first time in Marlins history that the Fish have had consecutive extra-inning walk-off homers and the first time in the Majors since the Dodgers did it to the Arizona Diamondbacks on April 5 and 6, 1999 on homers by Raul Mondesi (2-run HR in 11th inning off Frascatore) and Gary Sheffield (solo HR in 10th inning off B. Anderson). The two games marked the third time the Marlins won consecutive extra-inning games (also August 10 and 11, 1999 vs. SF and September 26, 1998 (two games of DH) vs. PHI.

PINCH NOTABLES: The Marlins collected 49 hits in 196 at-bats as pinch hitters this season, a .250 batting average, fifth in the National League, behind Montreal (.272), Arizona (.263), Colorado (.260) and San Francisco (.254). Florida's .332 pinch hit OBP was second to Colorado (.337) in the NL.

PAIR OF PITCHERS OF WEEK: LHP Mark Redman was named the Pepsi National League's Player of the Week for the week of June 30-July 6. Redman tossed complete-game victories over the Braves and Phillies during the week, posting a 2-0 record and a 2.00 ERA. Redman was the second of two Marlins pitchers to be honored with a NL Player of the Week award, as Dontrelle Willis was co-player of the week, June 16-22. It marks the second time in franchise history that the Marlins received two Player of the Week Awards for pitchers in the same year, as Burnett and Dempster both received honors in 2001.

WELCOME TO THE GAME, MR. CABRERA: Miguel Cabrera joined the Marlins on June 20 when he was called up to the Majors from AA Carolina. He started in left field that night vs. Tampa Bay and hit the game-winning home run in the bottom of the 11th inning off RHP Al Levine for his first Major League hit. Cabrera became the 11th Marlin to homer in his debut with the Club and fifth Florida rookie to homer in his debut, joining Alex Gonzalez (8/25/98), Mike Redmond (5/31/98), Charles Johnson (5/6/94) and Mitch Lyden (6/16/93). Of the five Florida rookies to homer in their first games, four made it their first hits: Gonzalez, Johnson, Lyden and Cabrera.

Cabrera became the third player in baseball since 1900 to hit a walk off homer in his ML debut, joining California's Bill Parker (9/9/71 vs. MIL) and Cleveland's Josh Bard (8/23/02 vs. Seattle). The homers by Cabrera and Parker were their first Major League hits and both came in extra innings (Parker's in 12th inn.). Cabrera was the youngest to accomplish the feat, as both Parker and Bard were 24 years old.

According to David Vincent at SABR, Cabrera became the 6th youngest player to homer in his first game, behind LOU's (American Association) Scott Stratton (18.021 on 4/21/1888), NYG's Whitey Lockman (18.345 on 7/5/1945), DET's Denny McLain (19.176 on 9/21/1963), CIN's Ted Tappe (19.224 on 9/14/1950) and KC's Clint Hurdle (20.050 on 9/18/1977).

A NIGHT FOR THE RECORD BOOKS: On July 1, the Marlins set five Club records in their 20-1 win over the Braves. The 20 runs set a new record, surpassing the 17 runs scored on September 17, 1995 at Colorado (17-0) and April 5, 2003 at Atlanta (17-1). The 25 hits surpasses the previous mark of 24, done on July 15, 1996 vs. Houston. The Fish also set single-game marks for extra-base hits (11), total bases (43) and margin of victory (19).

2003 REGULAR SEASON NOTES

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Marlins became the first team since the 1896 Pittsburgh Pirates to allow 20 or more runs and score 20 or more runs over a five-game span. The Bucs defeated the Boston Beaneaters (currently known as the Atlanta Braves) 20-4 on May 14, 1896 and fell to the Brooklyn Bridegrooms (currently known as the LA Dodgers), 25-6, on May 20. The Fish allowed 25 runs on June 27 at Boston and scored 20 on July 1.

A NIGHT TO FORGET: On June 27, the Boston Red Sox defeated the Marlins, 25-8. The Sox erased a 1-0 Marlins lead with 14 runs in the opening inning, including a Major League record 10 runs before the Florida staff recorded the first out. The 10 runs scored surpassed the Philadelphia Phillies old mark of nine, done on August 13, 1948. Carl Pavano and Michael Tejera each failed to record an out in the game. The last time two pitchers combined to not record an out to open a game were Kansas City Royal RHPs Wayne Simpson and Ken Wright on May 5, 1973 at Milwaukee, a team also managed by McKeon.

The 25 runs and 28 hits allowed in a game along with the 14 runs and 13 hits allowed in a single inning set new Marlins single-game records. The last team to score 25 or more runs in a game was Texas, on April 19, 1996 vs. Baltimore (26-7 win).

A WILD DAY, AND NIGHT: On April 27, the Marlins and Cardinals played 20 innings, with St. Louis posting a 7-6 victory. The game featured a combined 133 at-bats and 43 players (22 by FLA), including 15 pitchers (a franchise-record eight pitchers by FLA). The 15 pitchers combined to throw 622 pitches in the contest. It was baseball's longest game of the 2003 season, in terms of innings and time

The game was the longest, in terms of innings, since 1993, and was the sixth contest of 20 innings or more in the last 20 years.

05/08/84	25 innings	MIL @CHW	CHW won 7-6
06/03/89	22 innings	LA @ HOU	HOU won 5-4
08/23/89	22 innings	LA @ MTL	LA won 1-0
07/07/93	20 innings	LA @ PHI	PHI won 7-6
08/31/93	22 innings	CLE @ MIN	MIN won 5-4
04/27/03	20 innings	STL@FLA	STL won 7-6

The game was the longest, time-wise, since the Texas Rangers and Boston Red Sox played for six hours and 35 minutes on April 25, 2001. It was the longest game played in Marlins' team history.

6:07	STL @ FLA (20)	4/27/03	STL 7, FLA 6
5:44	HOU @ FLA (16)	8/20/99	HOU 6, FLA 4
5:14	FLA @ KC (14)	6/10/02	FLA 15, KC 8
5:05	TOR @ FLA (17)	6/8/98	FLA 4, TOR 3
4:54	FLA @ HOU (13)	5/3/97	FLA 9, HOU 8

THE BIGGEST COMEBACK: Mike Lowell hit a two-strike, two-out three-run homer off Boston's Brandon Lyon on June 28 at Fenway Park, establishing his single-season career best in home runs (25). The homer gave the Marlins a 10-9 win and capped a comeback from a 9-2 deficit. The seven-run comeback marked the biggest comeback win in franchise history, surpassing the seven six-run comebacks, last on May 2, 2002 at St. Louis (down 0-6, won 9-6).

2003 postseason notes are available in the Records and History section, on pages 349-351, of the 2004 Florida Marlins media guide.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF SOUTH FLORIDA BASEBALL

From the earliest days of the city of Miami, baseball has been a South Florida staple. Whether as the home to numerous minor league franchises, the training site for various Major League clubs or the home of some of the finest college and high school programs in the nation, baseball and South Florida need no introduction.

Records show that Abner Doubleday, who legend credits as having invented the game of baseball, was stationed at a military base in South Florida late in his career. Although club teams were taking to makeshift diamonds in the area before the turn of the century, the first official minor league entry appeared in 1912 when the Miami Magicians entered the Class D East Florida State League and competed until the United States entered World War I. After the war, several variations of minor league clubs appeared, one of which was the Miami Tourists.

On the eve of World War II, teams in the Florida East Coast League included the Miami Wahoos, the Miami Beach Flamingos, the Fort Lauderdale Tarpons and the West Palm Beach Indians. The league suspended operations in 1943 until the end of the war.

After the war, the need for a larger stadium became apparent. Jose Manuel Aleman, a former minister of education in Cuba, undertook the project. Construction began in late 1948 and Miami Stadium was opened on August 31, 1949. At the time, the 9,000-seat stadium was hailed as one of the finest and most beautiful in baseball.

By 1952, the Florida International League had risen to Class B status and included the Miami Sun Sox (managed by Pepper Martin), Miami Beach Flamingos, Fort Lauderdale Lions (who wore shorts during the 1953 season) and the West Palm Beach Indians.

The Marlins nickname made its first appearance in 1956 when the Triple A franchise from Syracuse, New York moved south and into Miami Stadium. The legendary promoter Bill Veeck was brought in to run the team and one of his first acts was to sign 50-ish hurler Satchel Paige. Paige's Marlins debut was one to remember, as Veeck arranged for a helicopter to deliver him to the mound on Opening Night.

Paige played three seasons with the Marlins, and was the starting pitcher on August 7, 1956 when baseball moved to the Orange Bowl for the first time. Thanks to pre-game festivities that included Cab Calloway and Merv Griffin, a crowd of 57,713 filled the stadium for a 6-2 victory by Paige and the Marlins over the Columbus Jets. The game raised over $30,000 for charity, but did little to build a long-term base of fans. Plagued by poor attendance and other financial problems, the AAA franchise moved to San Juan, Puerto Rico after the 1960 season.

After the Marlins departure, South Florida's professional baseball connection has been either through hosting various Major League spring training sites or through Class A Florida State League entries, including several different nicknames (Marlins, Orioles and Miracle).

In 1979, Triple A baseball made a brief return to South Florida with the Miami Amigos of the Inter-American League. The league lasted only until mid-July before financial problems brought it down. From that moment until April 5, 1993, the only professional baseball above the Class A level in South Florida was played during the spring.

Major League clubs since the days of Babe Ruth have sought refuge in the warm Florida climate while preparing for the upcoming season. At one time or another, South Florida has been the spring home of the Giants, Reds, Browns, Athletics, Yankees, Braves, Mets, Expos, and Pirates and is currently the site for the Marlins, Cardinals (in Jupiter) and Orioles (in Ft. Lauderdale).

But while the professional game was mostly a spring-time guest, the amateur programs became nationally prominent. At the University of Miami, Ron Fraser built over 30 years of, what many consider, the model collegiate program. Under Fraser, the team prospered on the field, becoming a regular participant in the College World Series and winning two national championships. Fraser also proved that a collegiate program could also be successful at the gate. Armed with a never-ending series of promotions, Miami has packed in the fans at home and has become the envy of many minor league teams in the process. The nationally-recognized Coral Gables program has garnered four National Championships (1982, 1985, 1999 and 2001) and is led by Jim Morris.

At the same time, various high school and junior college programs in the state have churned out a never-ending stream of blue chip prospects and Major Leaguers, the results of a year-round affinity for playing the game.

South Florida's interest in baseball was further solidified by the influx of Cubans since the late 1950's. In the mid-1950's, Havana was host to a legendary Triple A entry, the Sugar Kings. Starting with Minnie Minoso, a host of Cuban players such as Cookie Rojas, Bert Campaneris, Luis Tiant and Tony Perez made their way to the Major Leagues and opened baseball's collective eyes to the vast wealth of talent available in the Carribean.

That tradition continues today with the play of such Cuban-American products as Rafael Palmeiro, Alex Rodriguez and Jose Canseco, who made his professional debut with the Class A Miami Marlins in 1982. Other Major Leaguers who wore a minor league Marlins uniform include Dennis Martinez, Eddie Murray and former Marlins catcher Benito Santiago. With the 1997 arrival of Alex Fernandez to the Marlins, the vastness of this area's baseball has seen a person who played high school, collegiate and Major League Baseball in South Florida. The same can now be said of Marlins infielder Mike Lowell and pitcher Michael Tejera, hometown products playing for the local Major League team.

Since the Florida Marlins came to the area in 1993, Major League Baseball no longer heads north for the summer. Now, the baseball fans of South Florida can experience first-hand what they have long coveted, a big league team of their own.

1997 POSTSEASON NOTES

OVERALL POSTSEASON NOTES

POSTSEASON FIRSTS: The Florida Marlins played their first franchise postseason game on September 30, 1997, a 2-1 win over the San Francisco Giants in Miami. RHP Kevin Brown threw the first playoff pitch in franchise history, to CF Darryl Hamilton. Brown collected the first Florida postseason strikeout, fanning J.T. Snow to lead off the second inning. Brown retired the first 14 Giants he faced before allowing the first hit to an opponent, a single to Stan Javier with two out in the fifth inning. Florida's first postseason batter was Devon White, who faced Kirk Rueter and popped out to second baseman Jeff Kent. The first Marlin to reach base was Gary Sheffield, on a two-out first-inning walk. The first Florida hit came off the bat of Bobby Bonilla, following the Sheffield walk. The first run allowed by Florida came in the top of the seventh, when Bill Mueller hit a leadoff homer. The Marlins scored their first run in the bottom of the inning, on a Charles Johnson leadoff homer.

A FIRST FOR EVERYTHING: The Marlins became the first team to qualify for the postseason and win the World Series as a Wild Card. At the time, Florida was the fastest expansion team to win the World Series, done in their fifth season. The Arizona Diamondbacks surpassed Florida's mark, winning their World Series title in 2001, their fourth season.

RECORD WINNING STREAKS: The Marlins were the third team in postseason history to sweep their first playoff series in team history, joining the 1914 Braves, who swept the Philadelphia A's, and the 1969 Mets, who swept Atlanta. Florida began its postseason run with four straight wins, only the second team in baseball history with a franchise-opening playoff win streak of four or more games. The Braves won five straight games to open their postseason history, a four-game sweep in the 1914 World Series and a win over Cleveland in the 1948 playoffs.

NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES NOTES

SWEEPING SUCCESS: With their 3-0 sweep over the Giants, the Marlins became the fastest expansion team to win a postseason series (surpassed by Arizona in 2001). Prior to the Marlins, the fastest NL team to win a playoff series was the New York Mets, in their eighth season. The Marlins won each of the three games over the Giants in comeback fashion, including games one and two in their final at-bats. The 1997 Marlins led the Majors with 24 last at-bat victories in the regular season.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES NOTES

LIVAN MOST VALUABLE, PART 1: Livan Hernandez went 2-0 with a 0.84 ERA in two appearances (one start) in the NLCS vs. Atlanta. He became the first pitcher in LCS history to record a win as both a starter (Game 5) and as a reliever (Game 3) in the same series. In Game 5, Hernandez established an NLCS record and tied an LCS record with 15 strikeouts, the second-highest strikeout game in postseason history. His 2-1 three-hit win in Game 5 was his first Major League complete game.

NUMBERS DON'T ALWAYS MATCH UP: The 1997 Marlins became the second team to advance to the World Series despite posting a lower batting average and higher ERA than their LCS opponent. The Braves outhit the Marlins .253 to .199 and had a 2.60 ERA, compared to Florida's 3.57. The first time it happened was in 1992, when the Braves topped the Pittsburgh Pirates, in a series managed by Bobby Cox and Jim Leyland.

WORLD SERIES NOTES

LIVAN MOST VALUABLE, PART 2: Livan Hernandez (2-0, 5.27 ERA) became the second rookie in MLB history to win the World Series MVP award, joining Larry Sherry of Los Angeles, who claimed the honor in 1959. Hernandez also became the first rookie pitcher in 50 years to win two World Series starts. The last rookie to do it was the Yankees' Spec Shea in 1947. Hernandez became the youngest pitcher to win a World Series opener at the age of 22 years, seven months and 28 days. He was the first rookie to win a Series game since Atlanta's Mike Stanton on October 23, 1991 (G4 vs. MIN) and first rookie starter to win since Baltimore's Storm Davis on October 15, 1983 (G4 at PHI). Prior to Hernandez, the last rookie starter to win a Series opener was Philadelphia's Bob Walk (October 14, 1980 vs. KC).

JIM LEYLAND: Marlins manager Jim Leyland became the first World Series manager not to have played in a Major League game since Boston's John McNamara in 1986. The last National League skipper without Major League playing experience was Philadelphia's Paul Owens in 1983. Leyland became the first manager to win his World Series debut since Cincinnati's Lou Piniella on October 16, 1990, vs. Oakland.

BRRR: In Game Three of the World Series, October 21, the Marlins and Indians played in 15-degree wind chill temperatures, the coldest World Series game ever played, according to records kept.

PLAYING EXTRAS: Game seven of the World Series, won by Florida, 3-2, on an Edgar Renteria single off Charles Nagy in the bottom of the 11th inning, was the third seventh game in World Series history to go to extra innings. The others were played in 1924 and 1991.

NOTABLE ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Jeff Conine became the first player to go from the expansion draft to the World Series with the same team. Conine was selected from Kansas City with the 22nd pick in the 1992 expansion draft. Conine and Alex Arias are the first players to play for a team in its inaugural season and reach the Fall Classic since the Mets' Ed Kranepool in 1969.

A WINNING DEBUT: The Marlins won their first-ever World Series game, October 18, 7-4 over Cleveland at home. The last two teams playing in their first World Series games won, the last being Toronto in 1992.

ALTERNATING WINS: The Marlins won World Series games one, three, five and seven, while the Indians took games two, four and six. It marked the third time in in World Series history that teams alternated victories in all seven games, joining the 1909 Fall Classic between the Pirates and Tigers and the Yankees and Giants in 1962.

A HEART-STOPPER: Game Seven of the World Series marked the fourth time in World Series history that a winner-take-all game in the Fall Classic went into extra innings, along with the 1991 Series (MIN vs. ATL), the 1924 Series (WAS vs. NYG) and the 1912 Series (BOS vs. NYG). Overall, it marked the seventh time that a deciding World Series game went to extra innings, along with the 1933, 1939 and 1996 games. The 1997 Series was the 10th time a Fall Classic was won by the home team in the bottom of the ninth inning or later (with 1912, 1924, 1927, 1929, 1935, 1953, 1960, 1991 and 1993) and the fifth time in a winner-take-all situation.

EXPANDING INTO THE POSTSEASON

In only their fifth season, the Marlins became just the fourth Expansion Team to win the World Series. At the time, the Marlins were the fastest Expansion team to win a World Series title and the second-fastest team to reach the playoffs.

WINNING A PAIR

The Marlins are one of three of Major League Baseball's expansion teams to win multiple World Series. Florida accomplished the feat in their first 11 seasons, the fastest among their expansion-mates.

TEAM	EXPANSION SEASON	WORLD TITLES	YEARS TAKEN
Florida	1993	1997, 2003	11 years

2003 POSTSEASON NOTES

OVERALL POSTSEASON NOTES

The Marlins entered the 2003 postseason as the National League's Wild Card entry, the fourth team in Major League Baseball history to enter the playoffs as the Wild Card multiple times. The Fish (also Wild Card in 1997), joined the New York Mets (1999 and 2000), the New York Yankees (1995 and 1997) and the Boston Red Sox (1998, 1999 and 2003). The Marlins are one of three Major League Baseball expansion teams to make the postseason at least twice in their first 11 seasons. Kansas City came into play in 1969 and made the postseason in 1976, 1977 and 1978. Arizona began play in 1998, and saw postseason action in 1999, 2001 and 2002. The Marlins are one of four teams in Baseball to advance to the World Series as a Wild Card team and one of two (with Anaheim in 2002) to win it.

SIX STRAIGHT: The Marlins concluded the World Series with wins in each of their six playoff series to open the Club's franchise history. The six straight playoff series wins surpasses the mark of consecutive postseason series wins to begin a team's playoff history, done by the Boston Red Sox, 1903-1918. Of the 29 Major League franchises who have participated in postseason play, the Marlins are the only ones never to lose a series.

A WILD POSTSEASON: During the 2003 postseason, the Marlins posted three extra-inning victories, notched three wins when trailing by three or more runs and collected four wins in their final at-bats. According to Jayson Stark on ESPN.com, the Marlins are the fourth team in postseason history with three extra-inning wins, are the fourth team to win three games when trailing by three or more runs. Additionally, no postseason team had ever won more than four games in their last at-bat.

RECORD-SETTING CROWDS: The NLCS Game 4 crowd of 65,829 against the Cubs on October 12 set a new LCS attendance record, surpassing the previous mark of 65,476 (HOU @ PHI on 10/8/80). The Marlins also set a DS attendance record, drawing 65,464 in Game 4 vs. San Francisco (October 4). The October 23 World Series crowd of 65,975 was the largest World Series crowd since Game 7 of the 1997 Series when the Marlins drew 67,204 to see Florida host the Cleveland Indians.

NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

A SERIES FOR THE AGES: The NL Division Series between the Marlins and Giants featured 72 year-old Jack McKeon and 68 year-old Felipe Alou. McKeon was the oldest manager to participate in postseason play in Major League Baseball history, while Felipe Alou was the fourth-oldest. Below is a look at the list:

JACK McKEON	2003 FLORIDA	72 YEARS OLD
Casey Stengel	1960 New York (AL)	70 years old
Connie Mack	1937 Philadelphia (AL)	68 years old
Felipe Alou	2003 San Francisco	68 years old
Tommy Lasorda	1995 Los Angeles	68 years old

The two opposing skippers in this NLDS, Jack McKeon and Felipe Alou, have a combined age of 140 years, the highest combined age of any two managers facing each other in postseason history. Below is a look:

COMB. AGE	YEAR	TEAMS	MANAGERS
140	2003	FLA-SF (DS)	Jack McKeon / Felipe Alou
128	1958	NYY-ATL (WS)	Casey Stengel / Fred Haney
126	1957	ATL-NYY (WS)	Fred Haney / Casey Stengel
123	1949	BRO-NYY (WS)	Burt Shotton / Casey Stengel
118	1953	BRO-NYY (WS)	Chuck Dressen / Casey Stengel

WHAT WAYS TO WIN IT: The Marlins closed out their series with the Giants in rather historic ways. On Friday, October 3, the Marlins downed the Giants, 4-3 in 11 innings. The Giants scored an unearned run in the top of the 11th and the Marlins countered with two unearned tallies in the bottom. It marked the first time since Game 8 of the 1912 World Series that a team came from behind to win a postseason game with two unearned runs in the bottom of an extra inning, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

The Marlins followed that classic ending with more excitement on Saturday afternoon, October 4, when the Fish ended the NLDS with a 7-6 win over the Giants. The game ended as Jeff Conine threw out J.T. Snow at home plate off a Jeffrey Hammonds single to left. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the event marked the first time in Major League Baseball postseason history that a series ended with the tying run being thrown out at home plate.

CABRERA MATCHES POSTSEASON MARK: Miguel Cabrera went 4x5 in Game 4 of the National League Division Series vs. San Francisco. The four hits tied a Major League postseason record for hits by a rookie, joining NYY's Derek Jeter (1996 ALCS G1), LA's Chad Fonville (G2 1995 NLDS), NY Giants Freddie Lindstrom (1924 WS G5) and STL's Joe Garagiola (G4 1946 WS).

Cabrera had four home runs and 12 RBI in the 2003 postseason, the best single-season rookie home run and RBI marks in MLB playoff history. Entering this postseason, Willie McGee (1982 STL) held the rookie RBI mark at 10. Hideki Matsui has 11 playoff RBI in 2003, one behind Cabrera.

OH THOSE LEFT ON BASE: The Marlins and Giants combined to leave 30 men on base on October 3, setting a new NLDS record. The previous mark was 26, done by the Giants (16) and Mets (10) in a 13-inning contest on October 7, 2000.

2003 POSTSEASON NOTES

NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

PINCH ME: Mike Lowell became the sixth player in MLB postseason history to hit a pinch-hit home run in extra innings when he homered in the top of the 11th inning on October 7 at Chicago. Below is a look at the all-time postseason extra-inning PH homer list:

MIKE LOWELL (FLA)	G1 2003 NLCS AT CHC
Trot Nixon (BOS)	G3 2003 ALDS vs. Oak
Mike Pagliarulo (MIN)	G3 1991 ALCS at TOR
George Vukovich (PHI)	G4 1981 NLDS vs. MON
John Lowenstein (BAL)	G1 1979 ALCS vs. CAL
Dusty Rhodes (SF)	G1 1954 WS vs. CLE

HOMERS SHALL FLY: The Marlins hit a team postseason high four home runs on October 7 at Chicago. Three of the homers (by Rodriguez, Encarnacion and Cabrera) came in the third inning, marking the first time in NLCS history that a team homered three times in an inning. Cabrera and Encarnacion's homers were back-to-back, the seventh time in NLCS history that a team had players hit back-to-back homers.

A RECORD-SETTING NIGHT: The 17 extra-base hits by the Marlins and Cubs on October 7 set a new LCS record, surpassing the previous mark of 12, done on October 5, 1975 (OAK and BOS) and October 9, 1993 (PHI and ATL). The seven HR by both teams also set a new LCS record.

CABRERA AMONG THE YOUNGEST: On October 7 at Chicago, Miguel Cabrera became the second-youngest player to homer in the postseason, at 20 years, 182 day. The youngest player to go deep in the playoffs was Atlanta's A. Jones (19.178) on 10/17/96 vs. STL.

DONTRELLE WITH THE BAT: Dontrelle Willis became the first Marlins pitcher to collect a multi-hit game in postseason play as he went 3x3 on October 4 vs. SF. Willis' three hits set a postseason rookie pitcher record. He was the first pitcher to post a three-hit postseason game since LA's Orel Hershiser did it in game two of the 1988 World Series vs. Oakland.

BECKETT'S BEST: The Marlins forced a Game 6 in the NLCS as RHP Josh Beckett threw the first complete game (CG SHO) of his career (regular and postseason) on October 12. The two-hit shutout by Beckett tied the NLCS record for fewest hits allowed in a complete game. Beckett joins CIN's Ross Grimley (10/10/72), NY's Jon Matlack (10/7/73) and SF's Dave Dravecky (10/7/87). Beckett's effort was the 15th complete game shutout in NLCS history. Beckett became the first pitcher to shut out the Cubs in a postseason game since Boston's Babe Ruth, who blanked the Cubs in Game 1 of the 1918 World Series.

IN SELECT COMPANY: According to research by ESPN, Josh Beckett became the third pitcher in postseason history to throw a complete game shutout, allowing two hits or less and fanning 10 or more. Beckett joins Roger Clemens (2000 ALCS vs. SEA, 15 K) and Big Ed Walsh (1906 WS vs. CHC, 12 K) on that list.

IN AN ELIMINATION GAME: According to Jayson Stark of ESPN.com, Beckett became the fourth pitcher in the last 40 years to pitch a CG SHO with his team facing elimination (excluding G7's in LCS or WS or G5's in DS). Beckett joins a list with Curt Schilling (1993 WS), Danny Jackson (1985 ALCS) and Joe Coleman (1972 ALCS).

BIG INNING: The Marlins scored all eight of their runs in the eighth inning on October 14 at Chicago in an 8-3 win. The eight-run inning established a Marlins playoff record, surpassing their previous best of seven, done in the ninth inning of Game 3 of the 1997 World Series (October 21). The eight-run inning also ties an overall Marlins' record for runs scored in an inning, done for the ninth time overall and the first time since July 25, 2003 vs. PHI. The Fish were one run from tying the all-time NLCS record (nine), done by St. Louis in the second inning on October 13, 1985 vs. LA.

According to ESPN, the Marlins became the fifth team in LCS history to come back from a three-run or greater deficit in postseason play to win when facing elimination, and the first since Game 5 of the 1986 ALCS (Game 5 - Boston at California).

BACK FROM 3-1: The Marlins became the fourth team in LCS history (since 1985) to overcome a 3-1 deficit to capture the pennant. Prior to Florida's accomplishment, only one NL team had done it, the 1996 Atlanta Braves, who won three straight over St. Louis to advance to the World Series. Below is a look at the list of 3-1 LCS comebacks:

Year	LCS comebacks	World Series result
1985	KC over Toronto	KC over STL (4-3)
1986	Boston over California	NYM over BOS (4-3)
1996	Atlanta over St. Louis	NYY over ATL (4-2)
2003	Florida over Chicago	FLA over NYY (4-2)

AN MVP PERFORMANCE: Marlins catcher Pudge Rodriguez was named the NLCS Most Valuable Player, as he hit .321 (9x28) with two home runs and 10 RBI. The 10 RBI set a new NLCS record, surpassing the previous mark of nine, done by San Francisco's Matt Williams in 1989. Rodriguez became the fifth catcher in NLCS history to win MVP honors. Pudge joins STL's Darrell Porter (1982), ATL's Javy Lopez (1996), ATL's Eddie Perez (1999) and SF's Benito Santiago (2002).

A TOUGH TRICK TURNED: The Marlins advanced to the World Series by winning consecutive road games trailing three games to one, a feat done for the fifth time in postseason history: 1958 (NYY over MIL Braves in WS), 1968 (DET over STL in WS), 1979 (PIT over BAL in WS), 1985 (KC over TOR in ALCS) and 2003 (FLA over CHC in NLCS).

2003 POSTSEASON NOTES

WORLD SERIES

The Marlins became the first team in MLB history to reach the World Series as a Wild Card entry twice.

OF HISTORIC SIGNIFICANCE: The Marlins became the third expansion team to win multiple World Series, joining the New York Mets and Toronto Blue Jays. The Jays won their two World Championships in their first 17 seasons, while the Mets did it in their first 25 campaigns. The Fish won two World Championships in their first 11 Major League seasons. The Marlins would become the first team in the post expansion era to accomplish the feat.

JACK McKEON: Marlins manager Jack McKeon became the second manager in Major League Baseball history to lead his team to a World Series championship after taking over his Club during the season. The first manager to accomplish the feat was the Yankees' Bob Lemon in 1978, when he replaced Billy Martin.

EXPANSION NOTABLES: The Marlins were one of five expansion teams to reach the World Series multiple times. The New York Mets lead the list with four Fall Classic entries (win in 1969, loss in 1973, win in 1986 and loss in 2000). The Marlins, San Diego Padres (loss in 1984 and loss in 1998), Toronto Blue Jays (win in 1992, win in 1993) and Kansas City Royals (loss in 1980 and win in 1985) have each made two World Series appearances.

AGE IS A STATE OF MIND: Marlins manager Jack McKeon became the oldest skipper to lead his team to the World Series, as the Series opened with McKeon 72 years and 329 days old. McKeon is ahead of Casey Stengel (70.067 in 1960 with NYY), Connie Mack (68.283 in 1931 with PHA), Stengel (68,063 in 1958 with NYY), Mack (67.283 in 1930 with PHA) and Stengel (67.064 in 1957 with NYY).

McKeon was the first manager since Philadelphia's Paul Owens (in 1983) to lead his team to the World Series after not beginning the season as that Club's skipper.

HOW DO YOU DO, MR. GONZALEZ: Alex Gonzalez hit a walk-off homer off the Yankees' Jeff Weaver in the bottom of the 12th inning on October 22. It marked the first walk-off homer in Marlins postseason history and holds significance in Baseball history. It marked the 13th time that a World Series game ended on a home run and the first time since October 31, 2001 (G4 vs. ARI), when Derek Jeter homered in the bottom of the 10th inning.

According to research done by ESPN, Gonzalez was the third player in Baseball history to have his first career postseason homer come as a World Series walk off, joining Dusty Rhodes (1954 NYG vs. CLE) and Eddie Matthews (1957 MIL Braves vs. NYY). ESPN also noted that Gonzalez was the third player to hit a walk-off homer against the Yankees in World Series play, joining Bill Mazeroski (1960 G7) and Eddie Matthews (G4 1957).

A PENNY FOR YOUR THOUGHTS: RHP Brad Penny went 2-0 with a 2.19 ERA in two World Series starts against the Yankees. Penny became the 13th pitcher to beat the Yankees twice in the same Series, joining Sandy Koufax, Bob Gibson and Randy Johnson as the only four to do so in the last 40 years.

BECKETT NAMED WORLD SERIES MVP: Josh Beckett (1-1, 1.10 ERA in WS) became the youngest World Series MVP since 22 year-old Livan Hernandez claimed the honor for the Marlins in 1997. Beckett became the first pitcher since Minnesota's Jack Morris in 1991 to pitch a complete game shutout in a deciding World Series game, the 19th overall in baseball history. It was the first complete game shutout in a World Series game since Arizona's Randy Johnson on October 28, 2001 at New York. Beckett's five hits were the fewest hits in a deciding complete game shutout since Baltimore's Scott McGregor (5) in 1983. He became the youngest pitcher to win a deciding World Series game (23 years, 5 months, 10 days) since Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen (21.6.16) in 1985. Beckett fanned 47 batters in the 2003 postseason, tying the all-time record for a single postseason with Randy Johnson in 2001.

INAUGURAL SEASON OPENING DAY
APRIL 5, 1993

FLORIDA MARLINS 6, LOS ANGELES DODGERS 3

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM - The Marlins defeated Los Angeles 6-3 in their inaugural game before a sellout crowd of 42,334 fans. Charlie Hough scattered six hits over six innings to pick up the Club's first win. Walt Weiss gave the Marlins a 2-0 lead in the second inning with a two-run triple. Jeff Conine went 4x4 and stole the first base in Marlins history. Bret Barberie collected Florida's first hit, a first inning single to center. Bryan Harvey pitched a scoreless ninth to record the save. In pre-game ceremonies, Hall of Famer Joe DiMaggio threw out the first pitch and the Marlins retired uniform #5 in honor of their late president Carl Barger.

JOHN PIERSON
FIELD COORDINATOR

• John Pierson enters his first season with the Marlins and his ninth season in professional baseball. Pierson was named to his current post in November of 2003 after spending one season as the Athletics Director for Grand Canyon University in Phoenix, Arizona.

• Pierson spent four seasons, 1999-2002, in the Chicago Cubs minor league system, including his first season as the hitting coach for rookie-level Mesa and three years as the organization's minor league hitting coordinator. In 1998, Pierson served as Tampa Bay's minor league hitting coordinator. Before joining the Rays, Pierson coached for Ft. Myers, Rockford and Mesa in the Cubs system, from 1995-1997.

• Prior to joining the Cubs, Pierson spent three seasons as the hitting coach at Arizona State University and served in the same capacity at Grand Canyon from 1980-1991. Pierson began his coaching career as the hitting coach at Phoenix Junior College from 1977-1979.

• Pierson played middle infield in the Kansas City Royals minor league system from 1973-1976.

• Pierson received a Bachelor's degree from Arizona State in secondary education and a Master's from Northern Arizona in educational leadership.

DEAN TREANOR
PITCHING COORDINATOR

• Dean Treanor enters his third season in the Florida minor league system and first as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator. Treanor joined the Marlins in 2002 as the manager of the AAA Calgary Cannons, posting a 67-71 record. He led AAA Albuquerque last year, as the Isotopes went 74-70 and finished in first place in the Pacific Coast League's Central Division. The Isotopes fell to Nashville, three games to one, in the PCL Semifinals.

• Prior to joining the Marlins, Treanor spent three years as the Dodgers AAA pitching coach, a position he accepted on May 26, 1999. He also served as the pitching coach at AA San Antonio, where he had Alan Davis (2.15) and Eric Gagne (2.25) rank in the Texas League's top 10 in ERA.

• Treanor spent three seasons in the Montreal Expos organization as a pitching coach in their minor league system. He was at Class A Delmarva in 1996, was part of AA Harrisburg's Eastern League Championship team in 1997 and was with AAA Ottawa in 1998. Prior to joining the Expos, Treanor spent four seasons in the San Diego Padres system, leading Class A Waterloo from 1992-93, Class A Rancho Cucamonga in 1994 and AA Memphis in 1995.

• Treanor began his coaching career in the Cleveland Indians organization as manager of Class A Fresno in 1988. He then served as the pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Indians in 1989 and managed Class A Winter Haven in 1990. In 1991, he served as pitching coach for independent Reno.

• Treanor was originally signed by the Cincinnati Reds in 1971 and pitched at the AA level with Three Rivers-Quebec in the Eastern League. Treanor is a graduate of Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo.

JOHN MALLEE
HITTING COORDINATOR

• John Mallee enters his third season as the Marlins' minor league hitting coordinator after spending 2001 as the hitting coach for AAA Ottawa in the Montreal Expos organization.

• Prior to his appointment to Ottawa, Mallee spent six seasons (1995-2000) as a hitting coach in the Milwaukee Brewers organization. He began his coaching career in 1995 with Class A Beloit, moved up to Class A Stockton in 1997, returned to Beloit in 1998 before joining the AA Huntsville Stars in 1999.

• Mallee was drafted by Philadlephia as a shortstop in the 12th round of the June 1991 Draft and spent two seasons in the Phillies farm system, playing for Martinsville in the Appalachian League in 1991 and Spartanville in the South Atlantic League in 1992. Overall, Mallee played in 115 games and hit .208 with 10 doubles, three triples and 28 RBI.

• Mallee attended Chicago State University and the University of Illinois, majoring in Physical Education.

• John Daniel Mallee, his wife, Candy, and son, J.D. reside in Chicago, IL.

BUMP WILLS
INFIELD COORDINATOR

• Bump Wills enters his first season as Florida's minor league infield coordinator, as he joined the organization in December of 2003. Prior to joining the Marlins, Wills worked as a private baseball instructor in Spokane, WA, Camarillo, CA and Dallas, TX. Most recently, Wills worked with the Spokane Heat, an amateur select team.

• Wills spent 10 seasons (1988-1997) coaching in the Texas organization. From 1993-1997, his Major League responsibilities included coaching baserunning and infield play at Spring Training. Wills managed Hudson Valley in 1995 and 1996, Charlotte (FSL) in 1992, Gastonia in 1991 and Butte from 1988-1990. In 1993 and 1994, he was the organization's infield and baserunning instructor.

- Wills spent six years playing second base in the Major Leagues, posting a lifetime .266 batting average and stealing 196 bases with Texas and Chicago (NL). He hit a career-best .287 with nine homers in 1977 with the Rangers, stole a career-high 52 bases in 1978 and tallied a career-best 102 runs in 1980.
- Wills signed his first professional contract with Los Naranjeros de Hermosillo of the Mexican Pacific League. In 1976, the year he was chosen as an All-Star Second Baseman, he was a member of the first Mexican team to win a Caribbean World Series. In 1975 and 1976, Wills played in the Texas Rangers organization, before playing for the Hankyu Braves in Japan.
- Wills Attended Arizona State University, where he majored in Mass Communications and specialized in Journalism. A resident of Spokane, WA, Wills has three daughters.

GENE BASHAM
REHABILITATION TRAINING COORDINATOR

• Gene Basham enters his third season with the Marlins and his first as Rehabilitation Training Coordinator. Basham oversees all medical aspects of the minor league system, including strength and conditioning and injury rehabilitation. In 2002 and 2003, Basham worked with the Marlins AA affiliates, serving as the athletic trainer. In 2003, Basham was named the Florida Marlins Minor League Athletic Trainer of the Year.

- In 2001 and 2002, Basham served as the head athletic trainer for Venezuela's Pastora De Los Llanos Baseball Club. He spent two seasons in the Montreal Expos organization, working as the athletic trainer with Cape Fear in 2000 and Jupiter in 2001. He was previously a trainer in the Texas Rangers' system from 1995-1999.
- Basham was a trainer with the Center for Athletic Medicine from 1998-2000, working predominantly with high school athletes. From 1995-1997, he was an athletic trainer and graduate teaching assistant at Wichita State University, where he worked with the Shockers baseball team.
- Basham graduated from California State University, Northridge, where he was a student athletic trainer. He received a Master's degree in Education in Sports Administration from Wichita State University. Basham, 32, is originally from Los Angeles and resides in Hobe Sound, FL.

2003 PLAYER DEVELOPMENT RECAP

MARLINS NAMED 2003 BASEBALL AMERICA ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR: The Florida Marlins were named the 2003 Organization of the Year by Baseball America in their annual double issue (December 22, 2003-January 18, 2004). The Major League team posted a 91-71 record, 20 games over .500 and one game off the Club's all-time best mark of 92-70 in 1997. Florida's top three minor league affiliates (Albuquerque, Carolina and Jupiter) combined for a 230-190 record (.548) and each made the postseason, with the AA Mudcats winning the Southern League Championship.

According to Baseball America's grading system, the Marlins received an "A" for Major League performance, a "B" for minor league affiliates performance or stability in the farm system, a "B" for quality and depth of players in the farm system and contributions of young players in the Majors, an "A" for player procurement and talent brought into the organization and a "B" for organizational direction, including quality of leadership, improvement over previous years and general outlook of the franchise.

MARLINS NAME 2003 AWARD WINNERS: The Florida Marlins named outfielder Eric Reed and right-handed pitcher Trevor Hutchinson the 2003 Organizational Player and Pitcher of the Year. Reed, a 5-11, 170 pound left-handed hitter, played in 134 games with Class A Jupiter and hit .300 with 15 doubles, eight triples, 25 RBI and 53 stolen bases. Reed was selected in the ninth round of the June 2002 draft. Hutchinson, a 6-5, 220 pound right-hander, combined for a 12-5 record with a 3.09 ERA in 22 games (19 starts) with Class A Jupiter and AA Carolina in his first season in the organization. He began the season with a 9-2 record and a 2.77 ERA with the Hammerheads and followed by going 3-3 with a 3.86 ERA in eight games (six starts) with Carolina. Hutchinson was Florida's third-round selection in the 2002 Draft.

TOOLS OF THE TRADE: Five Marlins minor leaguers were recognized by Baseball America for having the best tools among prospects at their respective levels. Albuquerque outfielder Rob Stratton was named the Best Power Prospect in the Pacific Coast League. Carolina third baseman Miguel Cabrera was recognized in five categories: Best Batting Prospect, Best Strike Zone Judgement, Best Defensive Third Baseman, Best Infield Arm and Most Exciting Player. Three teammates from Jupiter were recognized by the voters. Pitcher Nick Ungs won the award for Best Control, Kevin Cave was named Best Reliever and Eric Reed earned honors as Best Defensive Outfielder.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS: In their inaugural season as Marlins affiliates, the Albuquerque Isotopes and Carolina Mudcats each reached the postseason. Albuquerque won the Pacific Coast League's Central Division before losing to Nashville in the first round of the playoffs. The Carolina Mudcats won both halves of the Southern League season on their way to being crowned Southern League Champions. Jupiter secured their spot in the playoffs with a first place finish in the first half of the Florida State League season, before being eliminated in the first round by St. Lucie. It marked the third time the Marlins had three minor league teams reach the playoffs in the same season.

A WINNING SEASON: Florida's six minor league clubs combined to post a record of 343-340 (.502), a nine game improvement over the combined records of the 2002 affiliates. The 2003 season marked the fifth time in twelve years that the Marlins minor league affiliates combined to finish with an above-.500 winning percentage.

TRACY WOODSON
MANAGER

• Tracy Woodson enters his second season as a minor league manager in the Marlins system in his seventh year overall and first at the AAA level. Last year, Woodson led the AA Carolina Mudcats to an 80-58 record and their second Southern League Championship. Woodson enters the 2004 season with a career managerial record of 376-391 in 767 games.

• Woodson spent two seasons (2001-2002) as a manager in the Padres system, posting a combined 134-141 record at Class A Ft. Wayne (2002) and AA Mobile (2001). He began his minor league managerial career in the Pittsburgh Pirates system, compiling a three-year record of 162-192 at Erie (New York-Penn League) in 1998, Hickory (South Atlantic League) in 1999 and Lynchburg (Carolina League) in 2000, including playoff appearances in 1999 and 2000.

• Woodson was drafted by the Dodgers in the third round in 1984 out of North Carolina State. He played five Major League seasons with the Dodgers and Cardinals, hitting .247 with five homers and 50 RBI in 215 games, including a World Championship with the 1988 Dodgers. He also spent time with the Orioles, Cubs, Yankees and Pirates.

• Woodson is a native of Richmond, VA. He and his wife, Lisa, reside in Jacksonville, FL. Woodson works as an NCAA basketball official during the offseason and his wife serves as the assistant women's basketball coach at Jacksonville University.

DOWN TO THE WIRE: Albuquerque went 35-22 over their final 57 games and clinched the division title on the season's final day. The difference between the first and last place teams in the division was 3.5 games.

PLAYER'S CHOICE AWARDS: Jason Wood was named the Isotopes MVP in a vote cast by Albuquerque players and coaches. Wood hit .296 with 16 HR and led the team with 83 RBI. Sean Bergman was named Pitcher of the Year after posting an 8-11 record with a 4.69 ERA. After winning just one of his first ten decisions, Bergman won seven straight from July 5 - August 15. Derek Wathan won the Mr. Hustle Award. He showed his versatility, appearing in a game at every position except for pitcher and catcher. He posted a .295 batting average and stole 21 bases on the season. Middle infielder Wilson Valdez was named the team's Best Defensive Player.

RON HASSEY
MANAGER

• Ron Hassey enters his first season in the Marlins organization and first as a minor league manager after spending seven seasons with the Arizona Diamondbacks. Hassey joined Florida in November of 2003 after scouting for Arizona last season.

• While with Arizona, Hassey served in a variety of different roles, in both Major League and minor league operations. He was a Special Assistant to General Manager Joe Garagiola Jr. from 1999-2000, was the Club's minor league catching coordinator in 2000, the minor league field coordinator in 2001 and 2002 and was involved in scouting for the 1997 Major League Expansion Draft.

• Hassey spent the 1992 season as an advance scout for the New York Yankees before joining Colorado's original coaching staff in 1993. Following three seasons in Denver, Hassey served as the bench coach for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1996 before joining Arizona.

• Hassey spent 14 seasons in the Majors, as a catcher for Cleveland, Chicago (NL), New York (AL), Chicago (AL), Oakland and Montreal, hitting .266 in 1,192 games. He is the only catcher in Major League history to catch two perfect games: Len Barker on May 5, 1981 with Cleveland, vs. Toronto and Dennis Martinez on July 28, 1991 with Montreal, vs. Los Angeles.

MANAGER

• Luis Dorante returns for his third season as manager of Class A Jupiter. In 2003, he led the Club to a combined 76-62 record, including a 42-28 mark and a first place finish in the FSL's Eastern Division in the first half. The Hammerheads fell to the St. Lucie Mets in two games in the semi-finals.

• In 2002, Dorante led Jupiter to an 81-57 record, the most victories in a single season in Jupiter baseball history. The Hammerheads fell in two games to Lakeland in the FSL playoffs.

- Dorante spent the 2001 season as manager of AA Harrisburg, in the Montreal Expos organization, leading the Senators to a 66-76 record. Prior to managing at the AA level, Dorante led the Hammerheads (Expos Class A affiliate) for two seasons (1999 and 2000) and compiled a 134-144 overall record. In eight minor league seasons, Dorante has compiled an overall managerial record of 483-470.
- Dorante joined the Expos organization as a Venezuelan scout in 1994. He was named manager of the Expos' Gulf Coast League club in 1995 and also managed them in 1997. He served as a coach for the GCL team in 1996 when they won the league's regular season title. In 1998, he managed Cape Fear to an 80-61 South Atlantic record.
- Dorante played seven seasons as a catcher in the Boston Red Sox organization, from 1987-93. Dorante, his wife, Solange, and two children reside in Maiquetia, Venezuela in the offseason.

TROPHY CASE: Nick Ungs was voted the Florida State League Most Valuable Pitcher. Ungs went 8-3 with a 1.99 ERA in 17 starts. He struck out 80 batters and walked just 14 in 113.1 innings of work. His 1.99 ERA set a Hammerheads record.

THE STARS ARE BRIGHT: Jupiter was well-represented on both the mid-season All-Star squad and the Florida State League All-Star team. Six players were on the mid-season All-Star roster: catcher Josh Willingham, center fielder Eric Reed, designated hitter Jose Santos, and pitchers Nick Ungs, Trevor Hutchinson and Kevin Cave. Reed, Ungs and Cave were also named to the FSL All-Star team as were DH Jason Stokes and Manager Luis Dorante.

STEVE PHILLIPS
MANAGER

• Steve Phillips returns for his third season in the Marlins organization and his second as the skipper of the Greensboro Bats. In his two seasons with the Bats, Phillips has led his teams to a combined 129-142 record. Phillips joined the Marlins in 2002 as manager of Kane County in the Midwest League and led the Cougars to a 64-75 record.

• Overall, Phillips enters his fifth season as a minor league manager and enters 2004 with a four-year managerial record of 197-270. He spent four years in the Montreal Expos system, including the 2001 season as manager of Clinton in the Midwest League, the 2000 year as manager of the Gulf Coast Expos and the 1999 season as a coach at AA Harrisburg.

- Phillips was signed in 1991 as a free agent out of the University of Kentucky, where he played both football and baseball. He played seven seasons of professional baseball, including four in the New York Yankees organization. He played three seasons of independent ball, finishing his career in 1997 with Allentown (PA) of the Northeast League.

• Phillips, his wife, Melissa, son Christopher, and daughter, MacKenzie, reside in West Chester, OH.

BENNY CASTILLO
MANAGER

• Benny Castillo enters his second season as manager of the Jammers after posting a 22-51 record in his first season in the New York-Penn League. Prior to joining the Marlins, Castillo spent two years as manager of the Sioux City Explorers of the Independent Northern League.

• Castillo led the Explorers to a 88-91 record in his two seasons in Sioux City, including a playoff berth in 2002. In the 2002 postseason, the Explorers fell to Winnipeg, three games to one in the Northern League's Central Division Championship Series. Castillo made his managerial debut in 2000, when he guided the Duluth-Superior Dukes to a 49-47 record and a Northern League Central Championship.

• In his three seasons in the Northern League, Castillo posted a 137-138 record, was selected as the Northern League Central Manager of the Year in 2000 and was the Northern League Central All-Star Game Manager in 2001.

• Castillo was drafted by Detroit in the 24th round of the 1988 draft, played 10 seasons in the minors with the Tigers, Rangers and Indians organizations (733 games), reaching the AA level in 1995, and hit .277 with 73 home runs and 406 RBI.

INTERLEAGUE NOTABLES

- Florida's Interleague record of 70-47 ranks second in the National League and fourth-best in the Majors, behind Oakland, Atlanta and the New York Yankees. The Marlins posted a winning record for the fifth time in seven seasons of Interleague Play in 2003, winning nine of 17 games against the AL West and Tampa Bay.
- The Marlins and the Blue Jays played a 17-inning marathon that lasted 5:05 on June 8, 1998. Edgar Renteria's RBI-single scored Todd Dunwoody with the winning run in a game won by Florida, 4-3. Brian Edmondson collected the win over Erik Hanson.
- Marlins continue to hold state bragging rights over intra-state rival Tampa Bay as the Fish hold a 20-11 all-time series mark against their "Sunshine State" foe.
- Jim Eisenreich became the Marlins first designated hitter in Club history on June 16, 1997.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIAL APPLICATIONS: All news media will be asked to submit a written request for Florida Marlins media credentials on their official letterhead.

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate newsgathering organizations who plan to cover the Marlins on a daily basis. Credentials will be issued only to members of the working press 18 years of age and older. No spouses, guests or children of members of the press will be issued credentials. Press passes are not transferable. Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from obtaining autographs, personal photographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or clubhouse. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of credential and future access. Only credentials issued by the Florida Marlins, Major League Baseball or the BBWAA will be honored. Credentials must be visible at all times.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: Daily credentials will be issued to those legitimate newsgathering organizations who do not qualify for season credentials. Any organization that anticipates the need for daily credentials must have a letter on file with the Florida Marlins Media Relations Department. Requests may be sent via FAX or mail and must be received at least 48 hours in advance of the game(s) requested. All credential requests must include a valid phone number or e-mail address, and it is the responsibility of requesting media members to find out in advance of game day whether or not their credential requests will be honored. Daily credentials are subject to the same restrictions as season credentials and any violation will result in revocation of the credential and any future access.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Credentials will be issued to those photographers on assignment for legitimate newsgathering organizations and those representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Photographers for licensees will only be granted daily passes. Priority in all areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials and all photographs taken are to be used for newsgathering purposes or officially licensed products. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of the conditions under which the credential is issued and result in no further credentials being issued.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Access to the Florida Marlins clubhouse both before and after games will be limited to those organizations who are filing stories on a daily deadline. Clubhouse access will be granted to all media when special situations arise, as determined by the Marlins Media Relations Department. The clubhouse is open to all media with proper credentials 3 1/2 hours before game time and then closes 45 minutes prior to the start of each game. It re-opens no later than 10 minutes after each game. Policies regarding access between games of doubleheaders and during rain delays will be determined by the Marlins Field Manager. Access to the visiting clubhouse is subject to the visiting club's guidelines.

FIELD ACCESS: All credentialed members of the media will be given access to the playing field prior to each game. No media will be allowed in fair territory or beyond the first and third base bags. All non-uniformed personnel must clear the field at the conclusion of visitors batting practice unless that individual has credentials expressly for in-game field privileges (photo passes, pre-game ceremonies, etc.). Live shots are permitted on the field until 35 minutes prior to the first pitch.

MEDIA INFORMATION

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Television and radio stations not holding broadcast rights for Marlins games will be allowed to transmit live reports prior to and after Marlins games. All live television shots will be done on the field. No live shots will be permitted from the clubhouses. No live transmissions inside the stadium by non-rightsholders will be permitted while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations will be permitted to provide "scene setters" and score updates between innings but these reports may not continue once an inning is underway. Any violations of these policies will result in revocation of credentials.

ROVING CAMERAS: Roving cameras are permitted in Pro Player Stadium for Marlins games upon approval from the Marlins Media Relations Department. After permission is granted, cameras are permitted to roam in all public areas other than the Club (Blue) level and the Picnic Area. Specific requests must be made before access to the Picnic Area will be granted. While roving, all photographers must not block any aisles or the views of any fans. Failure to adhere to these guidelines will result in the revocation of roving privileges for both the individual photographer and for the news organization that photographer represents.

ADMISSION TO PRO PLAYER STADIUM: All media covering Marlins baseball may enter Pro Player Stadium through Gate H which opens four hours prior to game time. Media may pick up their credentials at Gate H Will Call four hours prior to game time, for games beginning at 7:05 p.m. or later. For earlier games, will call opens three hours prior to first pitch. All other media who require their credentials prior to the above times may pick them up at Marlins reception at Gate G.

LOS MARLINS EN ESPAÑOL

WQBA (1140AM) is the Spanish flagship station for the 2003 World Champion Florida Marlins. They will broadcast all 162 regular season games and 10 Spring Training games in Spanish. Hall of Fame broadcaster, Felo Ramirez begins his 59th season as play-by-play announcer. Ramirez will team up with analyst, Luis "Yiky" Quintana who begins his third season with the Marlins Spanish radio team.

RAFAEL "FELO" RAMIREZ
SPANISH RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

• Felo Ramirez has been the Spanish "Voice of the Marlins" since the birth of the franchise in 1993. He called the Club's three no-hitters by Al Leiter (1996), Kevin Brown (1997) and A.J. Burnett (2001), as well as the 1997 and 2003 championship runs.

• As one of the most recognizable voice in sports broadcasting, Ramirez was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame on August 5, 2001 as the Ford C. Frick Award winner, a tribute presented each year by the National Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for "major contributions to the game of baseball."

- For more than 30 years, he has been the play-by-play voice of professional baseball in Puerto Rico, Nicaragua and Venezuela for teams such as the Caguas Natives, the Santurce Crabs, the San Juan Senators and the Magallanes Navigators, and has been the voice behind all but nine Caribbean World Series since 1949.
- A true pioneer of baseball broadcasting in his native Cuba, Ramirez was the first Hispanic broadcaster to have his narration included in the National Baseball Hall of Fame, with his call of Hank Aaron's 715th home run. His call of Roberto Clemente's 3000th hit was added later.
- He has lent his voice to more than 32 World Series and All-Star Games, and was recognized by former Commissioner Bowie Kuhn in 1980 for his extensive contribution to promoting baseball in Latin America from the broadcast booth.
- Rafael Ramirez Arias is married to the former Luisa "Fela" Montano. They make their home in Miami, FL.

LUIS "YIKY" QUINTANA
SPANISH RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

• Luis Quintana returns for his third full season as the Marlins' Spanish play-by-play announcer on WQBA 1140 AM. Besides radio, Quintana also serves as the main sports anchor/producer for WJAN41 América Teve.

• With over 30 years of broadcasting experience, Quintana began his career as a journalist writing for several Cuban national sports magazines and newspapers. Over the airwaves, Quintana served as a commentator and play-by-play announcer for the providence of Las Villas' radio network.

- Quintana, worked for TV Cubana (1980-1993) as a sports commentator and play-by-play announcer for several national and international championships including baseball, volleyball, basketball, and boxing, among other sports.
- Quintana took advantage of a trip to the World League of Volleyball in Brazil to request political asylum during a stop in Venezuela. While there, Quintana worked as sports analyst and play-by-play announcer for "Cadena Súper Suave" as well as serving as the official play-by-play announcer for the "Tigres de Aragua", of the professional baseball league in Venezuela.
- Quintana received his Bachelor's degree in Physical Education and Sports, with a specialization in baseball from Instituto Superior de Cultura Fisica. Quintana also served as pitching coach for several baseball national championships in Cuba.
- Yiky and his wife, Lizet, reside in Miami, FL.

HOW TO FIGURE...

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at bats.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and then divide that number by the number of innings pitched.

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING AVERAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit-by-pitch, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games, which may include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: The fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher participates as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: if another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

NOTE: These figures DO NOT determine Rawlings Gold Glove winners at the end of the season. Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: A player with no more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during the previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-man player limit (excluding time in military service).

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

BLOWN SAVE DEFINITION: When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a blown save. If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity. This method has been a part of the Rolaids formula since 1988.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAKS: A consecutive-game playing shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

DISABLED LISTS:
15-Day: The player must remain off the active roster for a minimum of 15 calendar days, starting on the day following the player's last game.
60-Day: Same rules apply, however, this may only be used when the team's 40-man roster is full. Any player placed on the 60-day disabled list after August 1 may not play for the remainder of the season, including any post-season game.

EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST: Maximum number of players on list at one time-no limit. Minimum period of inactivity-sixty (60) calendar days. Players placed on this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the season. This list may only be used when a club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.

FREE AGENCY (RE-ENTRY): The 1985 collective bargaining agreement brought about changes in the free agency process. Following is the appropriate information:

Six years of Major League Service continues to be required to be eligible for free agency.
The Re-Entry Draft has been abolished.
A player has 15 days from the first day following the World Series to file for free agency.
By December 7, former club must offer to arbitrate or becomes eligible to sign player. By December 19, player must accept offer or on January 9 former club becomes ineligible to sign the player. (Ineligible club retains eligibility the following May 1.)
If club and player proceed to arbitration, maximum salary cut rules do not apply.
Player who accepts former club's offer to arbitrate is not subject to repeater rights limitations.

NIGHT GAME: A night game shall be any game with the official starting times fixed after 5:00 p.m. All games, with official starting times fixed for 5:00 p.m., prevailing time, or earlier, shall be "day games."

PLAYER LIMITS: A Major League roster consists of 40 players until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the first of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE:
Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES
(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:

(1) A curfew imposed by law;
(2) A time limit permissible under league rules;
(3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.);
(4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on;
(5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:

(i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.
(ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:
NOTE: Weather and similar conditions--4.12(a) (1 through 5)--shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tied game and must be replayed in its entirety.
(d) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:

(1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds; or

(2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or

(3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible;

(i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or

(ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.

(4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(e) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup. A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

SALARY ARBITRATION: Beginning in 1987, three years Major League Service required for eligibility.
Beginning 1987, maximum cut rules do not apply if in immediately preceding year player won arbitration increase of over 50%.
Three-man panels will be scheduled to hear cases instead of single arbitrators in 50 percent of the cases in 1998, 75 percent in 1999 and 100 percent in 2000 and 2001.
Beginning in 1987, arbitrator is officially instructed to give particular attention for purposes of comparison to salaries of players with Major League Service no more than one annual service group higher than player who is arbitrating.
Beginning in 1991, a player with at least 2 but less than 3 years of Major League Service, shall be eligible for salary arbitration if: a)he has accumulated at least 86 days of service during the immediately preceding season or b)he ranks in the top 17 percent in total service in the class of players who at have at least 2 but less than 3 years of ML service, however accumulated, but with at least 86 days of service accumulated during the immediately preceding season.

SAVE RULE: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:
1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
2) He is not the winning pitcher; and
3) He qualified under one of the following conditions: he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or he enters that game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or no deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces; or he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

TRADING REGULATIONS: The trading deadline is July 31.Trades may be made with any other Major League club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 (midnight) without waivers. Waivers are required, however:
1) If the assignment is to another Major League club: From August 1 and ending at 5 pm EDT the day after the end of the season.
2) If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after three years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3) If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring three years of service: At any time during the year.
4) If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

WAIVER PERIOD: Major League waivers must be secured for all Major League trades from August 1 until the day after the regular season concludes. NO WAIVERS are required to trade a Major League player at any other time.

FLEXIBILITY - The ability of a muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.
FRACTURE - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.
GRADE ONE INJURY - A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.
GRADE TWO INJURY - A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.
GRADE THREE INJURY - A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.
GROIN - Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.
HAMSTRING - Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.
HEAT CRAMPS - Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.
HEAT EXHAUSTION - Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.
HUMERUS - Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.
INFLAMMATION - The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and / or loss of function.
LABRUM (LABRUM GLENOIDE) - The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lipedge or lip-like structure.
LATERAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (LCL) - Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.
LIGAMENT - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

N.A.T.A. - National Athletic Trainers' Association; certifying and governing body of the athletic training profession.
MENISCUS - Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medical and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.
METACARPALS - Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.
METATARSALS - Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.
PATELLA - The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.
PATELLA TENDINITIS - Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as "jumper's knee."
PBATS - Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society, the governing body of athletic trainers in professional baseball.
PERONEAL MUSCLES - Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the ankle. Tendons of these muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.
PHALANX - Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.
PLANTAR FASCIA - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.
PLANTARFLEXION - Ankle motion such that the toes are pointed toward the ground.
POSTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (PCL) - A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
QUADRACEP MUSCLES "QUADS" - A group of four muscles on the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.
ROTATOR CUFF - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.
ROTATOR CUFF IMPINGEMENT SYNDROME - A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress. The four stages are: 1) tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff, 2) fiber dissociation in the tendon with a permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation, 3) a partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm, 4) a complete tear of 1 cm or more.
SC JOINT - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collarbone with the sternum.
SCAPULA - Shoulder blade.
SCIATIC NERVE - Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the lower back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.
SHIN SPLINT - A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.
SPRAIN - Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.
STERNUM - The breast bone.
STRAIN - Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.
STRETCHING - any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby inrease flexibility.
STRESS FRACTURE - A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.
SUBLUXATION - Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.
TALUS - The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.
TARSALS - Group of six bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.
TENDINITIS - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.
TENDON - Tissue that connects muscle to bone.
TIBIA - Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.
TRANSVERSE PROCESS - Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.
TRAPEZIUS - Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.
TRICEPS - Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.
ULNA - Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.
ULNAR NERVE - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.
ULTRASOUND - An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.
"WIND KNOCKED OUT" - Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.
WRIST - The junction between the two forearm bones (radium and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapeziod, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).
ZYGOMA - The cheekbone.

MARLINS IN THE COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY AFFAIRS PHILOSOPHY

The Florida Marlins, L.P. is an active partner in the South Florida community. By supporting community and charitable causes, we are exercising our commitment of being a responsible and civic-minded business.

Through Cornerstones for Kids, the Marlins continuously reach beyond the walls of the stadium to meet face-to-face with fans of all ages. Baseball is a family game and we are committed to ensuring that the Marlins impact every member of our diverse community in a positive manner.

The catalyst may be a player signing an autograph for a youngster reaching over the dugout, a hug from Billy the Marlin, a youth group receiving tickets for a game, or one of our players teaching baseball at a Marlins Youth Baseball Clinic. We are committed to building a brighter future for South Florida.

FLORIDA MARLINS ALL HEART AWARD

The Florida Marlins presented the 2003 All Heart Award to centerfielder Juan Pierre. The All Heart Award is presented to the Marlins player who best exemplifies the team's commitment to the South Florida community and for his desire to better the community by making a positive impact and serving as a role model for others.

During his first season with the Marlins, Juan was an active participant in the Club's Cornerstones for Kids program. Juan served as a spokesperson for the Marlins @ School program and visited a participating class at Maya Angelou Elementary School in Miami. Juan also served as a spokesperson for the StrikeZone Summer Reading Series, a program designed to encourage kids to continue reading over the summer.

Through the youth baseball component of Cornerstones for Kids, Juan participated in the Marlins Youth Baseball Clinic Series by conducting two clinics. He also served as a spokesperson for the Partnership for a Drug Free America, by recording a public service announcement encouraging kids to remain drug-free.

During the holiday season, Juan participated in the "A Dream Come True" toy distribution at Holmes Elementary School in Miami. Through the Magnum's Force program on CBS-4, Juan learned about a Marlins fan serving in Iraq. He packed a Marlins care package and personally delivered it to the soldier's family as a holiday surprise.

CORNERSTONES FOR KIDS

Building a brighter future through education, the arts and baseball

The foundation of every child's future is a strong mind and a strong body. Cornerstones for Kids provides the tools for our children to develop both their minds and their bodies in a positive way.

EDUCATION

Marlins @ School

Marlins @ School is an on-line curriculum enhancement program that utilizes the Florida Marlins as the basis for the lessons. Marlins @ School aims to enhance the learning experiences of children in grades 4 through 6. The lessons are linked to the curriculum areas of language arts, mathematics and science, and are in line with FCAT standards and requirements. Marlins players, coaches and broadcasters will visit approximately 30 classrooms during the week of May 17 as part of Marlins @ School Week.

Adopt-A-Classroom

Adopt-A-Classroom is a not-for-profit organization that matches businesses and individuals with inner-city schools. Each $500 donation provides the teacher of the adopted classroom the opportunity to purchase items that make learning fun and exciting for students. This year the Marlins have adopted all 40 classrooms at Holmes Elementary School in Liberty City (Miami). Holmes Elementary School is the only remaining 'F' Elementary School in Miami-Dade County, and the Marlins are committed to helping improve the education of the children at the school.

THE ARTS

The Marlins recognize that an important part of developing a strong mind is stimulating creativity and imagination. Therefore, the Marlins will be pursuing partnerships with art programs and museums that strive to achieve these goals.

BASEBALL

Youth Clinics

There is nothing our players and coaches enjoy more than to pass along their baseball knowledge to kids. In order to give children the opportunity to learn baseball from professionals, the Marlins conduct clinics on select Saturday mornings throughout the year as well as periodically throughout the offseason. Marlins players and coaches teach the fundamentals of pitching, hitting and fielding.

Florida Marlins-Josh Beckett Youth Baseball Tournament

In 2003, the Marlins hosted the fourth annual Florida Marlins-Josh Beckett Youth Baseball Tournament. The week-long tournament for 10 and under and 12 and under youth baseball teams was held at Grapeland Park in Miami. The Broward Bulldogs earned the 10 and under championship, and the Miami Raiders earned the 12 and under championships. This year's tournament will be held May 8-15.

MARLINS IN THE COMMUNITY

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL PROGRAMS

Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities

Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) is a youth program offering children ages 13-18, who live in disadvantaged areas, the opportunity to participate in organized baseball and softball. This program is designed to promote interest in baseball, academic achievement and social responsibility. The Florida Marlins and Gatorade supply uniforms, umpires and equipment for more than 400 children. Two Marlins all-star teams have won the RBI World Series. In 1997, the Boys Junior team brought home the first place trophy, and in 1999, the Girls Softball team captured the crown.

MLB Pitch, Hit and Run

MLB Pitch, Hit and Run is a skills competition that focuses on three fundamental baseball skills: batting, fielding/throwing and base running. The competition helps children ages 7-14 focus on becoming better all-around players. The Marlins host the South Florida championship, which helps determine who will compete in the national finals at the All-Star Game. In 1999, Nick Hernandez, from Hialeah, was crowned the national champion in the 9-10 year-old division.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Ballpark Buddies/Corporate Partners for Youth

Marlins players and sponsors partner to provide tickets to every home game to local community groups. Last season, over 25,000 children attended Marlins games through this program.

Player Appearances

Marlins players make various community visits throughout the year. Visits to schools, hospitals, youth centers and local businesses give the players the opportunity to interact with our fans outside the stadium.

Speakers Bureau

Since the inaugural season, Marlins front office personnel have spoken at various schools, businesses and civic organizations throughout South Florida. The Bureau's mission is to provide information about baseball in general, and the Marlins, in particular, to our fans. Meeting with local groups also allows the front office to receive feedback directly from the community.

Fan Mail

Local volunteers sort through the hundreds of letters the Marlins receive each week. Letters addressed to an individual player are delivered directly to the player. Volunteers send a Marlins Fan Pack to fans with generic requests.

FLORIDA MARLINS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

The Florida Marlins Community Foundation is committed to the betterment of South Florida's youth through the Cornerstones for Kids Program whose goal is building a brighter future through education, the arts and baseball. Resources for contributions come from a variety of sources including player donations, corporate sponsorships, grants and various events.

Several Florida Marlins players support ticket programs, which enable at-risk youth groups to attend Major League games at Pro Player Stadium. In addition, some players have pledged to support various charitable programs through their performance on the field. Home runs, stolen bases, and RBI statistics turn into dollars for worthwhile causes. Josh Beckett's $100,000 donation in 1999 established the initial funding for Cornerstones for Kids.

Thanks to the generosity of corporate sponsors who have partnered with the Florida Marlins Community Foundation, positive contributions are being made to the South Florida Community. Budweiser and Publix are helping fund scholarships through Homerunzao. BankUnited served as the title sponsor for the 2003 Florida Marlins Celebrity Classic. The Fox Sports Net Home Run Challenge raises unrestricted dollars and allows for flexibility to assist with grants and holiday giving. Other sponsors include Al's Florist and Gifts, Boston Market, Cookies by Design, Don Carter Bowling Centers, Hollywood Greyhound Track, Levinson Jewelers, New Era, Russell Athletic and University Car Wash and Lube.

Thanks to Teammates for Kids, the Florida Marlins Community Foundation has been the recipient of grants in support of the Cornerstones for Kids programs.

The Florida Marlins Community Foundation is best known for sponsoring and supporting various events throughout the year. Examples include the Baseball Writers of America Awards Banquet prior to FanFest, Dinner on the Diamond, Dollars and Strikes to benefit the Boys and Girls Clubs, Friday Nights are Fun, the Saturday Night raffle and the Jerseys Off Their Backs Raffle, which supports Muscular Dystrophy Association.

The are many organizations which benefit from the Florida Marlins Community Foundation. Special partners include the Daily Bread Food Bank, Boys and Girls Clubs of America, Adopt-A-Classroom, Make-A-Wish Foundation of South Florida, Muscular Dystrophy Association and the Florida Marlins Josh Beckett Youth Baseball Tournament.

MARLINS HISPANIC MARKETING

SPANISH-LANGUAGE AND HISPANIC CULTURAL EVENTS

Beisbol is a passion played out on grassy fields and dirt plains throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. The Marlins aim to bring this same passion to the diverse Hispanic community of South Florida. It is the goal of our Hispanic Marketing efforts to take a proactive approach in bringing los Marlins to our fans in their communities.

Marlins en Miami Store

Marlins en Miami is a full service ticket office and team merchandise store. It is located in the heart of the Hispanic community at 3701 SW 8 Street. The main focus of the store is to serve as a lasting presence for the Marlins within the Little Havana/Coral Gables area. With a staff that is fluent in both Spanish and English, the Marlins serve the Hispanic community by offering general information, individual, group, and season ticket sales, as well as hosting events throughout the season.

Hablando con los Marlins

"Hablando con los Marlins" is a weekly radio show hosted by Armando Fernández Lima and Juan Martínez about the Marlins on WQBA 1140 AM. The show is broadcast live from the Marlins en Miami store every Saturday during the season from 2pm to 4pm. The show consists of a recap of the week's games, player interviews, trivia, and live calls from our fans.

Fiesta Latina

The Florida Marlins host a Fiesta Latina in the Sportstown east tent outside of Gate G 90-minutes prior to every Saturday home game. This party is our signature Hispanic event with a distinctive Latin flavor featuring live salsa and merengue music, delicious latin food and free Salsa dance lessons for any of our fans who would like to learn. Admission to the Fiesta Latina is free for all fans.

Cafecito con los Marlins

Every Friday that the team is at home during the season, the Marlins, in conjunction with Spanish rightsholder WQBA 1140AM, host "Cafecitos con los Marlins". The event is a live broadcast with host Maria Elvira Salazar along with Eduardo Gonzalez-Rubio and a different Marlins player or coach each week from 1:00 pm to 2:00 pm. The show originates from a different latin restaurant or cafeteria each time and fans are invited to come by and have a complimentary cup of Cuban coffee and chat with our players.

Hispanic Heritage Weekends

The Florida Marlins will be hosting events celebrating Hispanic heritage and culture during select weekends when the Marlins play at home during the 2004 season.

For more information please call the Marlins en Miami store at (305) 442-8776.

The Marlins en Miami store is located in the heart of Miami.

Celebrating its 16th anniversary, Pro Player Stadium is now in its 17th year of operation. The 115 million dollar, state of-the-art, open air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds. Plans for the stadium were first announced on March 5, 1984 and the clearing for the stadium site began on July 22, 1985. Ground breaking ceremonies were held on December 1, 1985. Financing for the stadium was based largely upon the licensing of executive suites and club seats on a 10-year basis. Executive suites range in price from $30,000-$90,000 per year, while club seats cost between $800-$1,800 per year on a 10-year license. On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga agreed to purchase 50 percent of Joe Robbie Stadium enabling him to begin his pursuit of a Major League baseball franchise. On January 24, 1994, Huizenga acquired the remaining 50 percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership. On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel brand of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium.

The first football game was played on August 16, 1987, when the Dolphins hosted the Chicago Bears in a preseason contest. The Baltimore Orioles and Los Angeles Dodgers battled on March 11, 1988, marking the first-ever baseball game played at the stadium. The Florida Marlins made their debut at Pro Player on April 5, 1993 vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers, winning 6-3.

BASEBALL RENOVATIONS

In order to accommodate Major League Baseball, the stadium underwent a series of renovations.

- In 1999, fans on the 100 level were treated to brand new concession stands which offer efficient and convenient service... the 400 level had new concession stands installed in 1998.
- Conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium and the construction of the baseball press box in the southwest corner of the facility... baseball dugouts were added in addition to 660 new lights for suitable night play.
- The renovation also included an electric disappearing pitcher's mound... the stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water... clubhouses and other amenities were added for baseball, including the Batters Box lounge located behind home plate and adjacent to the Marlins' clubhouse.

STADIUM RENOVATIONS

Pro Player is one of the few stadiums to boast two JumboTRON video boards. In 1996, a new 26' x 37' color video screen was installed in the west end zone, while just prior to Super Bowl XXIX, the stadium's east board was replaced with a new one measuring 30' x 40'.

• A new state-of-the-art Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system is now in place. Installed for the 1995 season, the mechanical drainage system can handle five times the water of the old system.

• SportsTown, an entertainment complex located on the south side of the stadium between Gates F and H, consists of two 7,500 square foot tents, 10 interactive games, six distinctive food stands and two large bars. In addition, the complex includes eight 32" color TV monitors, radio broadcast and entertainment stages, along with a state-of-the-art sound system, novelty and souvenir merchandise kiosks and a Guest Service/Ticket kiosk.

• Many new parking renovations and access improvements have been made, including expanded permit parking for suite patrons and season ticket holders. A new RV and limo parking lot has been created along with easier-to-read signage.

• The flooring on the 100 level was remodeled in 1999. The flooring on the 400 level was remodeled in 1997.

• In 2002, a complete new distributed sound system was installed.

2004 SPRING TRAINING

ROGER DEAN STADIUM
SPRING TRAINING HOME OF THE FLORIDA MARLINS

The Florida Marlins enter their second Spring Training at Jupiter's Roger Dean Stadium, approximately one hour north of the Club's regular season home of Pro Player Stadium. The complex is located on approximately 110 acres within the Abacoa Community. Abacoa is located on Donald Ross Road, approximately 7 mile east of Interstate 95. The Marlins share the Palm Beach County facility with the St. Louis Cardinals, the only multiple-team Spring Training site in the Grapefruit League.

In 2003 Baseball America recognized Roger Dean Stadium as baseball's fifth-best spring training facility.

Overall, the Marlins begin their 12th spring training on Wednesday, March 3, when they host the University of Miami Hurricanes. The Marlins spent their inaugural Spring Training at the Cocoa Expo Center in Cocoa Beach and played nine years (1994-2002) at Space Coast Stadium in Viera (Melbourne).

The $28 million state-of-the-art complex opened on February 28, 1998 and accommodates 7,000 fans with luxury sky box seats, field and loge box seats, bleachers and berm seating. The ballpark seats approximately 6,700 and another 300 fans can spread out on a blanket and catch a closer glimpse of the game from the Berm Seating, located just in front of the Party Deck in right field. The six air-conditioned luxury suites provide 320 square feet of interior entertainment including a wet bar, refrigerator, sink, ice maker, color television with VCR, sofa, bar stools and additional seats. Each suite has seating for 12 (outdoors) and is available with a private entrance and elevator access.

Following spring training, the complex is the home of the Class A Jupiter Hammerheads (Florida affiliate) and the Palm Beach Cardinals (St. Louis affiliate) of the Florida State League.

Pitchers and catchers are scheduled to report on Saturday, February 21, with their first workout taking place on Monday, February 23. Position players report on Tuesday, February 24, with the first full squad workout set for Thursday, February 26.

Offices for the Marlins Media Relations Department and the media workroom are located in the Marlins executive offices, beyond the left field wall at Roger Dean Stadium. The Press Dining area is located in the main press box area. Admission to all Marlins spring training games requires either a spring training credential, a BBWAA card or a Marlins daily spring training credential.

LOS EJECUTIVOS DE LOS MARLINS

JEFFREY H. LORIA, DUEÑO

- Durante una llamada de conferencia, el 12 de febrero, 2002, el dueño de los Marlins, Jeffrey H. Loria, dijo, "Reconstruir este equipo para que tenga un nivel campeonil es mi primera prioridad." Exactamente 620 días después, a las 10:54 pm, una noche de 50 grados el dia 25 de octubre del 2003 en el Bronx, los Marlins del Sr. Loria se coronaron los Campeones del Mundo.

- Sr. Loria condujo a los Marlins a un título en menos de dos años, llegando a ser el dueño más rápido en moldear un Club y guiarlo a un Campeonato Munidal desde 1984, el primer año de Thomas S. Monaghan con Detroit.

- Los Marlins del 2003 ganaron 91 juegos durante la temporada, a una victoria de la marca del equipo en su primera temporada de campeonato, en 1997. A partir del 23 de mayo, no hubo ningun equipo mejor que los Marlins. Desde que Loria y su personal se incorporaron a los Marlins, el equipo tiene una marca de 170-154, incluyendo una marca de 114-91 desde el 14 de agosto, 2002, la octava-mejor marca en el beisbol en ese lapso.

- En enero de 2003, el compromiso del Sr. Loria de desarollar una tradición ganadora en la Sur de Florida trajo a casa a uno de los mejores agentes libres disponibles en el invierno, un All-Star 10 veces, ganador del premio Rawlings Gold Glove 10 veces y residente del Sur de la Florida, Iván "Pudge" Rodríguez. Después de un comienzo de 16-22, el Sr. Loria contrató a Jack McKeon, un hombre con exitosa historia mejorando la calidad de sus equipos para convertirlos en competidores, el 11 de mayo como el manager del Club. Los Marlins tuvieron 75-49, un porcentaje ganador de .605, bajo las instrucciones de McKeon, la segunda mejor en el bëisbol en ese lapso.

- Cuando los Marlins se acercaron al receso del Juego de Estrellas y se pusieron por arriba de los .500, el Sr. Loria de nuevo confirmó su lealtad a sus peloteros y a los aficionados del Sur de Florida, terminando la especulación sobre un cambio de Mike Lowell y anunciando que el All-Star tercera base se quedaría en el equipo.

- Posteriormente, el Sr. Loria y la organización adquirieron al líder de la Liga Americana en juegos salvados, Ugueth Urbina, de los Rangers de Texas, el 11 de julio para ayudar a solidificar al bullpen y seguir hacia la postemporada. Con los Marlins cerca del puesto de Wild Card y las noticias que la lesion sufrida por Mike Lowell el 30 de agosto cerrarían su temporada regular, el Sr. Loria y la organización actuaron rápidamente y trajeron a casa uno de los heroes de bëisbol en la Sur de Florida, el "Sr. Marlin" Jeff Conine, adquiriendo al jardinero de Baltimore ántes de la fecha tope para cambios, la medianoche del 31 de agosto.

- El compromiso por ganar del Sr. Loria resultó en que los Marlins alcanzaran un lugar en la postemporada, cuando el equipo aseguró el Wild Card con una victoria 4-3 sobre los Mets de Nueva York en casa el 26 de septiembre.

- La temporada del 2004 marca la tercera del Sr. Loria como Dueño de los Marlins de la Florida. Oficialmente, él se convertió en el tercer dueño en la historia del Club después de comprar los Marlins de John W. Henry el 15 de febrero del 2002 y se hizo cargo del equipo después de la aprobación unánima por los dueños de los otros equipos.

- El Sr. Loria fue nombrado Chairman, Chief Executive Officer y Managing General Partner de los Expos de Montreal el 9 de diciembre de 1999. En las dos temporadas en Montreal, el compromiso del Sr. Loria de tener un equipo competitivo y emocionante fue demostrado por su inversión en la planilla de pagos y firmando varios peloteros claves a contratos a largo plazo alrededor del jardinero Vladimir Guerrero, tres veces All-Star, el All-Star José Vidro de segunda base y lanzador abridor Javier Vázquez.

- El Sr. Loria se involucró por primera vez en el bëisbol profesional en 1989 cuando compró a los 89ers de Oklahoma City, un equipo de Triple-A de la Asociación Americana, ahora los Redhawks de la Liga de la Costa del Pacífico, del cual fue el dueño hasta 1993. Fue nombrado el Ejecutivo del Año de la Asociación Americana en 1992, la misma temporada cuando su Club ganó el campeonto de la AAA.

- El Sr. Loria nació en la Ciudad de Nueva York. Recibió su bachillerato de Yale University en 1962 ántes de ganar su título de negocios de Columbia University.

- Como Vendedor internacional de Arte desde 1962, el Sr. Loria se especializa en pinturas y esculturas importantes por Maestros del siglo veinte. Era miembro del Consejo de Directores del Art Dealers Association of America y es un miembro actual del Consejo de Directores del Cardozo School of Law de Yeshiva University en la Ciudad de Nueva York. También se mantiene activo en numerosas organizaciones benéficas. Es el autor de dos libros, "Collecting Original Art" y "What's It All About Charlie Brown?"

- El Sr. Loria dedica gran parte de su tiempo apoyando a muchas beneficiencias a nivel mundial, incluyendo a hospitales, instituciones educativas y museos.

- El Sr. Loria y su esposa, Sivia, tienen tres hijos: David, quien es el Presidente de los Marlins, Nancy y Samantha. El Sr. Loria divide su tiempo entre de sus hogares en Nueva York y el Sur de Florida.

LOS EJECUTIVOS DE LOS MARLINS

DAVID P. SAMSON, PRESIDENTE

- David P. Samson está en su quinta temporada en las Grandes Ligas y tercera como Presidente de los Marlins de la Florida. Él es uno de seis Presidentes actuales en las Grandes Ligas que han dirigido a un campeón de la Serie Mundial.

- Después de la escuela de ley, es Samson fundó y se convirtió en Presidente de News Travels Fast, la primera empresa que entregó el New York Times en Europa el mismo día.

- En 1996, Samson se incorporó a Morgan Stanley, un banco de inversiones en la Ciudad de Nueva York, posición de la que dejo en 1999 cuando se juntó a los Expos de Montreal como Vice Presidente Ejecutivo.

- Samson concentra sus esfuerzos benéficos ayudando a los niños menos privilegiados y enfermos puedan disfrutar de la experiencia de campamentos de verano, mejor educación y mejor cuidado de salud. Él y su esposa, Cindi, anteriormente una directora de escuela, han estado casados por 13 años y tienen dos hijas, Hannah y Kyra, y un hijo, Caleb.

JOEL A. MAEL, VICE CHAIRMAN

- Joel A. Mael comienza su tercera temporada como Vice-Chairman de los Marlins de la Florida, una posición en la que comenzó en febrero del 2002. Antes de unirse a los Marlins, Mael trabajó de cerca con los Expos de Montreal, como consejero financiero por tres años. Su relación de negocios con el Sr. Loria comenzó hace más de 14 años, y sigue aconsejando a los ejecutivos sobre muchas otras materias.

- Mael fue uno de los fundadores de la firma de inversión y banca comercial, Tallwood Associates, en 1990. La firma establecida en la Ciudad de Nueva York ha completado más de 100 cambios/inversiones desde sus inicios. Mael es un miembro del consejo de directores de muchos de los clientes de la firma.

- Después de su graduación de la escuela de negocios en 1981, Mael pasó diez años en el departamento de Finanzas Corporativas de Drexel Burnham, donde ascendió al nivel de Director Directivo y fue un miembro del comité ejecutivo del departamento. En Drexel, Mael participaba en negocios por más de $5 billones, y en numerosas transacciones de M&A y LBO.

LARRY BEINFEST, VICE PRESIDENTE PRINCIPAL Y GERENTE GENERAL

- Larry Beinfest entra a su tercer temporada como el Vice Presidente Principal y Gerente General después de una temporada en el 2003 cuando su Club ganó la Serie Mundial y fue reconocido como la Organización del Año por Baseball America. Bajo la tutela de Beinfest, los Marlins produjeron una marca de 91-71 en 2003, la tercera-mejor marca en la Liga Nacional, detras de Atlanta y San Francisco. A nivel de las ligas menores, la organización se combinó para una marca de 343-340 y tres clasificaciones a la postemporada, una faena hilvanada por apenas la segunda vez en las 11 primeras temporadas de la organización.

- Beinfest fue escogido como el ganador del Rube Foster Legacy Award, dado por el Negro Leagues Baseball Museum como el Ejecutivo del Año en el 2003.

- El 11 de mayo, Beinfest anunció que había contratado un manager de 72 años, Jack McKeon, para dirigir a los Marlins después de un comienzo de 16-22. Dos días antes, Beinfest y su personal habían incorporado a un lanzador zurdo de 21 años, Dontrelle Willis, al plantel de los Marlins. McKeon guió a los Marlins a una marca de 75-49, la segunda-mejor en Béisbol durante ese lapso, y un registro de 72-42 desde el 23 de mayo, la mejor marca en el beisbol desde esa fecha. Willis terminó empatado al tope de los lanzadores de los Marlins con 14 victorias y fue nombrado el Novato del Año en la Liga Nacional por voto de la BBWAA. McKeon fue seleccionado el primer Manager del Año por voto de la BBWAA en la historia del equipo.

- Beinfest es el segundo más rápido Gerente General activo ganar una Serie Mundial, detras de Brian Cashman de los Yankees, quien ganó en su primera temporada, 1998. Beinfest es uno de seis Gerentes Generales activos que han ganado uniendose en esa lista a Cashman, David Dombrowski, Joe Garagiola Jr., John Schuerholz y Bill Stoneman.

- En sus primeras dos temporadas como Gerente General, Beinfest ha dirigido a los Marlins a una marca de 170-154, un porcentaje victorioso de .525. El éxito de Beinfest fue recompensado el 26 de agosto cuando el Dueño Jeffrey H. Loria extendió su contrato por la temporada de 2007. Beinfest fue promovido a su posición actual el 12 de febrero de 2002.

- Beinfest fue el arquitecto de los Marlins del 2003, los campeones del mundo, a traves de varios cambios y adquisiciones de agentes libres. Antes del comienzo de la temporada del 2002, los Marlins adquirieron a Willis y durante el año añadieron a Carl Pavano y Juan Encarnación. Después de esa temporada, Beinfest añadió el ganador de 14 juegos Mark Redman, Tim Spooneybarger, el pelotero más valioso del 2003 Juan Pierre y un miembro futuro del Salón de Fama, Iván "Pudge" Rodríguez.

- Durante el año, Beinfest adquirió Ugueth Urbina, quien encabezaba la Liga Americana en juegos salvados, de los Rangers de Texas, firmó el hombre con la mayor cantidad de hits emergentes, Lenny Harris, y lanzadores Chad Fox y Rick Helling, todo para reforzar al equipo. Cuando el All-Star tercera base Mike Lowell se fracturó la mano izquierda el 30 de agosto, Beinfest adquirió a Jeff Conine de los Orioles de Baltimore antes de la fecha tope de la medianoche el 31 de agosto.

- Beinfest fue nombrado el segundo Gerente General en la historia de los Marlins, después de David Dombrowski. Antes de unirse a los Marlins, Beinfest sirvió como el Gerente General Interino de los Expos de Montreal, siendo promovido a esa posición el 2 de octubre del 2001.

- Beinfest, 40, se convirtió en el Gerente General Asistente de los Expos el 3 de diciembre, 1999. Tuvo bajo su responsabilidad todos los aspectos de las operaciones de béisbol, incluyendo las negociaciones de contratos, la arbitración de salarios y todo relacionado con las reglas y las renuncias.

- Beinfest empezó su carrera en el beisbol profesional en 1989 con los Marineros de Seattle y durante sus 10 años con los Marineros tuvo varias posiciones incluyendo la de Asistente al Desarollo de Peloteros y Reclutamiento, la de Vice Director del Desarollo de Peloteros, Director del Desarollo de Peloterors y Asistente al Vice Presidente de Operaciones de Beisbol.

- Nació y creció en Chatsworth, California, donde fue un campo corte All-Los Angeles a Chatsworth High.

- Beinfest se graduó en 1986 de la Universidad de California, Berkeley y tiene una maestria en Comunicaciones Públicas de Syracuse University.

- Beinfest y su esposa, Katie, tienen dos hijos, Madelyn y Mitchell, y viven en Davie, FL.
